

Virtual Public Meeting for the Election Advisory Committee

The County of Riverside has established an Election Advisory Committee to provide a forum for public engagement and sharing of information about the election process. The meeting will provide the public with an opportunity to hear from our Registrar of Voters, address questions to the Committee, and provide feedback on opportunities for greater public engagement and education about our election process.

Please join us for the 2nd meeting of the Election Advisory Committee on:

Meeting Date: August 11, 2022
