Record number of Riverside County residents now registered to vote

A record 1,021,673 residents are registered to vote in Riverside County, Registrar of Voters Rebecca Spencer reported today. The number of registered voters will continue to grow as the Registrar of Voters office processes last minute voter registration cards. The deadline to register to vote for the Nov. 8 Election was Oct. 24 but the Registrar of Voters must process registration cards that were postmarked before the close of registration.

The total voter registration in the county increased from 936,703 on Sept. 9. A total of 20,439 completed transactions were submitted on the California Secretary of State's online voter registration website on Oct. 24.
