I, Debra Bowen, Secretary of State of the State of California, hereby certify that the measures included herein will be submitted to the electors at the Statewide Direct Primary Election to be held on June 8, 2010, and that this guide has been prepared in accordance with the law.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State in Sacramento, California, this 18th day of March, 2010.

Debra Bowen
Secretary of State
Dear Fellow Voter:

By registering to vote, you have taken the first step in playing an active role in deciding California’s future. Now, to help you make your decisions, my office has created this Official Voter Information Guide that contains titles and summaries prepared by Attorney General Edmund G. Brown Jr.; impartial analyses of the law and potential costs to taxpayers prepared by Legislative Analyst Mac Taylor; arguments in favor of and against ballot measures prepared by proponents and opponents; text of the proposed laws prepared by Legislative Counsel Diane F. Boyer-Vine; and other useful information. The printing of the guide was done under the supervision of Acting State Printer Kevin P. Hannah.

Voting is easy, and any registered voter may vote by mail or in his or her local polling place. The last day to request a vote-by-mail ballot from your county elections office is June 1.

Primary elections are held to determine which nominee in each political party will represent the party in each contest in the general election. The winning candidate from each party (or the top two voter-getters in nonpartisan contests) in the June 8, 2010, primary will move on to the November 2, 2010, general election in which all voters, regardless of political affiliation, will be allowed to vote for any candidate on that ballot.

Some political parties are allowing decline-to-state (also known as nonpartisan or unaffiliated) voters to request and vote their party’s ballot in this primary election. See page 4 of this guide for more information.

There are more ways to participate in the electoral process. You can:

- Be a poll worker on Election Day, helping to make voting easier for all eligible voters and protecting ballots until they are counted by elections officials;
- Spread the word about voter registration deadlines and voting rights through emails, phone calls, brochures, and posters; and
- Help educate other voters about the candidates and issues by organizing discussion groups or participating in debates with friends, family, and community leaders.

For more information about how and where to vote, as well as other ways you can participate in the electoral process, call (800) 345-VOTE or visit www.sos.ca.gov.

It is a wonderful privilege in a democracy to have a choice and the right to voice your opinion. Whether you cast your ballot at a polling place or by mail, I encourage you to take the time to carefully read about your voting rights and each ballot measure in this information guide.

Thank you for taking your civic responsibility seriously and making your voice heard!

A decline-to-state voter is any registered voter who chose to not affiliate with a political party when he or she registered to vote (also sometimes referred to as a nonpartisan or DTS voter).

Primary elections are held to determine which nominee in each political party will represent the party in each general election contest. The winning candidate from each party in the June 8, 2010, Statewide Direct Primary Election will move on to the November 2, 2010, General Election.

- If you are registered to vote with a political party, you may only vote in the statewide direct primary election for ballot measures and the candidates running for office from the party with which you are registered.
- If you did not select a political party when you registered to vote, you can request a ballot of any political party that has notified the Secretary of State that it will permit decline-to-state registered voters to help nominate their candidates. You may NOT request more than one party’s ballot.

The following political parties are allowing decline-to-state voters to request and vote their party’s ballot (with the exception of county central committee candidates) in the June 8, 2010, Statewide Direct Primary Election:

- Democratic Party
- Republican Party

If you do not request a specific ballot, you will be given a nonpartisan ballot containing only ballot measures and the names of candidates for nonpartisan offices.

If You Vote by Mail . . . Each county elections office is required to mail all decline-to-state voters who are registered as permanent vote-by-mail voters a notice and application regarding voting in the primary election. The notice shall inform the voter that he or she may request a vote-by-mail ballot for a particular political party for the primary election if that party authorized decline-to-state voters to vote in its primary. If you have already been issued a nonpartisan ballot but would like to request a ballot from one of the participating parties, you must contact your county elections office. For a list of county elections offices, see page 60 of this guide.

Voter Registration

Registering to vote is simple and free. Registration forms are available online at www.sos.ca.gov and at most post offices, libraries, city and county government offices, and the California Secretary of State’s Office. You also may have a registration form mailed to you by calling your county elections office or the Secretary of State’s toll-free Voter Hotline at (800) 345-VOTE (8683).

To register to vote you must be a U.S. citizen, a California resident, at least 18 years of age on Election Day, not in prison or on parole for the conviction of a felony, and not judged by a court to be mentally incompetent.

You are responsible for updating your voter registration information. You should update your voter registration if you change your home address, change your mailing address, change your name, or want to change or select a political party.

Note: If you moved to your new address after May 24, 2010, you may vote at your old polling place.
About Ballot Arguments

The Secretary of State’s Office does not write ballot arguments. Arguments in favor of and against ballot measures are provided by the proponents and opponents of the ballot measures. If multiple arguments are submitted for or against a measure, the law requires that first priority be given to arguments written by legislators in the case of legislative measures, and arguments written by the proponents of an initiative or referendum in the case of an initiative or referendum measure. Subsequent priority for all measures goes to bona fide associations of citizens and then to individual voters. According to law, the submitted argument language cannot be verified for accuracy or changed in any way unless a court orders it to be changed.

About Ballot Measures

There are several types of statewide ballot measures. The June 8, 2010, Statewide Direct Primary Election ballot includes the following three types of ballot measures.

Legislative Constitutional Amendment
When the State Legislature proposes to amend the California Constitution, the amendment must be approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the Legislature and then presented to voters on a statewide ballot. A legislative constitutional amendment does not require the Governor’s signature. To be enacted, a legislative constitutional amendment requires a simple majority of the total votes cast.

Legislative Initiative Amendment
When the State Legislature proposes to amend a law that was previously enacted through the initiative process, the amendment must be approved by a majority vote of each house of the Legislature and then presented to voters on a statewide ballot (unless the original measure specifically permits legislative amendment or repeal without voter approval). To be enacted, a legislative initiative amendment requires a simple majority of the total votes cast.

Initiative
Often referred to as “direct democracy,” the initiative process is the power of the people to place measures on a statewide ballot. These measures can either create or change laws and amend the constitution. If the initiative proposes to create or change California laws, proponents must gather petition signatures of registered voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast for all candidates for Governor in the most recent gubernatorial election. If the initiative proposes to amend the California Constitution, proponents must gather petition signatures of registered voters equal in number to eight percent of the votes cast for all candidates for Governor in the most recent gubernatorial election. To be enacted, an initiative requires a simple majority of the total votes cast.

Quick-Reference Guide

Proposition 13

Limits on Property Tax Assessment. Seismic Retrofitting of Existing Buildings. Legislative Constitutional Amendment.

Summary

Provides that construction to seismically retrofit buildings will not trigger reassessment of property tax value. Sets statewide standard for seismic retrofit improvements that qualify. Fiscal Impact: Minor reduction in local property tax revenues related to the assessment of earthquake upgrades.

Arguments

Pro

Proposition 13 makes a necessary change to our state’s constitution in order to eliminate a dangerous disincentive for property owners to upgrade un-reinforced masonry structures in order to improve earthquake safety. This proposition promotes fairness by eliminating the unequal treatment of different types of property which undergo seismic safety improvements.

Con

No argument against Proposition 13 was submitted.

Proposition 14

Elections. Increases Right to Participate in Primary Elections.

Summary

Changes the primary election process for congressional, statewide, and legislative races. Allows all voters to choose any candidate regardless of the candidate’s or voter’s political party preference. Ensures that the two candidates receiving the greatest number of votes will appear on the general election ballot regardless of party preference. Fiscal Impact: No significant net change in state and local government costs to administer elections.

Arguments

Pro

A YES vote means YOU will be able to vote for any candidate you wish for state and congressional offices, regardless of political party preference. Experts say non-partisan measures like Proposition 14 will result in elected representatives in Sacramento and Washington who are LESS PARTISAN and MORE PRACTICAL.

Con

The politicians behind Proposition 14 included a deceptive provision, that won’t make primaries “Open” at all. Candidates will no longer be required to list their party affiliation on the ballot. They want to look like “independents” while they actually remain in their political party. Business as usual disguised as “reform.”

SUMMARY

PROP 15 CALIFORNIA FAIR ELECTIONS ACT.

Repeals ban on public funding of political campaigns. Creates a voluntary system for candidates for Secretary of State to qualify for a public campaign grant if they agree to limitations on spending and private contributions. Each candidate demonstrating enough public support would receive same amount. Participating candidates would be prohibited from raising or spending money beyond the grant. There would be strict enforcement and accountability. Funded by voluntary contributions and a biennial fee on lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers. Fiscal Impact: Increased revenues (mostly from charges related to lobbyists) totaling over $6 million every four years. These funds would be spent on public financing for campaigns of Secretary of State candidates for the 2014 and 2018 elections.

WHAT YOUR VOTE MEANS

YES A YES vote on this measure means: The state ban on public funding for political campaigns for elected offices would be lifted. For the 2014 and 2018 elections, candidates for the office of Secretary of State could choose to receive public funds to pay for the costs of campaigns if they met certain requirements. Charges related to lobbyists would be increased to pay for these costs.

NO A NO vote on this measure means: The ban on public funding for political campaigns for elected offices would continue. Candidates for the office of Secretary of State would continue to pay for their campaigns with private funds subject to current rules. Existing charges related to lobbyists would not change.

ARGUMENTS

PRO YES on 15: The amount of money in politics is outrageous and corrupts the system. The League of Women Voters of California says Prop. 15 will get politicians out of the fundraising game so they will focus on California’s priorities. Elections should be won, not bought by special interests. www.YesOnProp15.org

CON Proposition 15 is a trick. It raises taxes with no accountability to provide millions in taxpayer money to politicians to fund their negative campaigns AND ALSO ALLOWS politicians to continue to raise money from special interest groups. Prop. 15 is not real campaign reform. Please vote NO on Prop. 15.

PROP 16 IMPOSES NEW TWO-THIRDS VOTER APPROVAL REQUIREMENT FOR LOCAL PUBLIC ELECTRICITY PROVIDERS. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Requires two-thirds voter approval before local governments provide electricity service to new customers or establish a community choice electricity program using public funds or bonds. Fiscal Impact: Unknown net impact on state and local government costs and revenues—unlikely to be significant in the short run—due to the measure’s uncertain effects on public electricity providers and on electricity rates.

SUMMARY

WHAT YOUR VOTE MEANS

YES A YES vote on this measure means: Local governments would generally be required to receive two-thirds voter approval before they could start up electricity services or expand electricity service into a new territory.

NO A NO vote on this measure means: Local governments generally could continue to implement proposals involving the start-up or expansion of electricity service either through approval by a majority of voters or actions by governing boards.

ARGUMENTS

PRO Proposition 16 is the Taxpayers Right to Vote Act. It requires two thirds voter approval before local governments can spend or borrow public money to enter the retail electricity business. In tough economic time like these, taxpayers should have the final say in how government spends our money.

CON Proposition 16 does two things: First, it drastically limits your choices on who provides you with electricity. Second, it lets the for-profit utilities in California raise your electricity rates again and again, by protecting their monopoly and eliminating competition. For more choice and lower electric bills, NO on Proposition 16.

ALLOWS AUTO INSURANCE COMPANIES TO BASE THEIR PRICES IN PART ON A DRIVER’S HISTORY OF INSURANCE COVERAGE. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY

Put on the Ballot by Petition Signatures

Permits companies to reduce or increase cost of insurance depending on whether driver has a history of continuous insurance coverage. Fiscal Impact: Probably no significant fiscal effect on state insurance premium tax revenues.

WHAT YOUR VOTE MEANS

YES A YES vote on this measure means: Insurance companies could offer new customers a discount on their automobile insurance premiums based on the length of time the customer had maintained bodily injury liability coverage with another insurer.

NO A NO vote on this measure means: Insurers could provide discounts to their long-term automobile insurance customers, but would continue to be prohibited from providing such discounts to new customers switching from other insurers.

ARGUMENTS

PRO Yes on 17 can save insured drivers up to $250 by eliminating a surcharge for changing insurance companies. 17 allows insured drivers to take continuous coverage discounts with them if they change insurers, just like good driver discounts. A flaw in California law prevents this. 17 saves consumers money. www.YesProp17.org

CON Mercury Insurance is spending millions on Proposition 17 so auto insurance companies can RAISE PREMIUMS AS MUCH AS $1,000 on good drivers. It reverses a voter-approved law and allows new insurance surcharges that will harm middle-class families and lead to more uninsured motorists. Consumer advocates OPPOSE Prop. 17.

Find Your Polling Place

Polling place locations are coordinated by county elections offices. Your polling place will be listed on the back cover of your county sample ballot booklet.

Many county elections offices offer polling place look-up assistance via websites or toll-free phone numbers. For more information, visit the Secretary of State’s website at www.sos.ca.gov/elections/elections_d.htm or call the toll-free Voter Hotline at (800) 345-VOTE (8683).

If your name does not appear on the voter list at your polling place, you have the right to cast a provisional ballot at any polling place in the county in which you are registered to vote.

Provisional ballots are ballots cast by voters who:

• Believe they are registered to vote even though their names do not appear on the official voter registration list;
• Believe the official voter registration list incorrectly lists their political party affiliation; or
• Vote by mail but cannot locate their vote-by-mail ballot and want to vote at a polling place.

Your provisional ballot will be counted after elections officials have confirmed that you are registered to vote and you did not vote elsewhere in that election.

(Note: If you moved to your new address after May 24, 2010, you may vote at your old polling place.)

- Sets a statewide standard for the types of seismic retrofit improvements exempt from reassessment.
-Limits the exemption from reassessment to specific components of construction or reconstruction that qualify as seismic retrofit improvements, as defined by the Legislature.

BACKGROUND

Local property taxes are based on each property’s assessed value. When a property is purchased, it is generally given an assessed value equal to its purchase price. As long as a property has the same owner and there is no new construction on the property, its assessed value generally remains the same, except for a small annual increase for inflation. New construction generally causes a reassessment if it adds a building, adds space, converts a building to a new use, or renovates the building to make it like new. The property’s assessed value is increased to reflect the value added by the new construction. In contrast, the assessed value is not increased for normal maintenance and repair, such as replacing a leaky roof.

Currently, there are several specific exclusions in the State Constitution from the new construction rule. Among them are two separate provisions regarding earthquake safety modifications on existing buildings. The first one excludes earthquake safety upgrades on “unreinforced masonry buildings” (such as those made of brick or cement blocks) that are required by local ordinances. Such upgrades are excluded from reassessments for a period of 15 years. The second excludes from reassessment other earthquake safety modifications to any type of building and has no time limit. Both exclusions apply only until the property is sold.

PROPOSAL

This constitutional amendment deletes both of the existing exclusions and replaces them with a single exclusion for all earthquake safety upgrades. The exclusion would not be time-limited and would last until the property is sold. This amendment has the practical effect of removing the 15-year limit to the exclusion for safety upgrades on unreinforced masonry buildings.

FISCAL EFFECTS

This measure would allow properties with masonry buildings currently receiving an exclusion from reassessment of 15 years for earthquake upgrades to extend this exclusion. It would also allow any properties with future masonry upgrades to receive exclusions with no time limits. This would reduce local property tax revenues to the extent that properties are no longer reassessed at higher values after 15 years. Many county assessors, however, have indicated that they either: (1) do not track the number of years that unreinforced masonry upgrades have received an exclusion or (2) classify these upgrades as maintenance or repair. In addition, many properties sell before the 15-year period is up, which triggers a reassessment of the entire property. For these reasons, the loss to local property taxes as a result of this measure is probably minor.
Argument in Favor of Proposition 13

Proposition 13 makes a necessary change to our state’s constitution in order to eliminate a dangerous and unfair disincentive for property owners to upgrade certain types of buildings in order to improve earthquake safety. This proposition promotes equity and fairness among taxpayers by eliminating the unequal treatment of different types of property which undergo seismic safety improvements.

Currently, there exists an inequity in the State Constitution regarding the assessment of buildings which have undergone repairs to make them safer during earthquakes. Some properties, which have repairs made to increase the building’s safety in the case of an earthquake, are subject to reassessment and higher taxes while others are not. As a result, property owners who install seismic safety technologies are taxed differently depending on the type of building they improve.

Only property owners with reinforced masonry structures receive an unlimited exclusion from reassessment. Those owners of un-reinforced masonry structures receive only a 15-year exclusion from reassessment. This exclusion creates a wrongful and dangerous disincentive for safety retrofits. What is especially concerning is that older un-reinforced masonry buildings are in the greatest need of retrofitting if they are to survive earthquakes or other natural disasters that frequently occur in California—particularly in the San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles County. Seismic retrofits should be made to ALL unsafe buildings, including un-reinforced masonry structures.

The proposition that you are voting on corrects this unfair policy by providing equal treatment for all property owners who incorporate seismic safety improvements regardless of the type of building. It assures that any property having undergone a seismic safety retrofit will be exempt from property tax reassessment for that improvement. This measure is narrowly written and does not change the taxpayer protections afforded by the original Proposition 13 enacted in 1978.

This proposition also eliminates a substantial workload for the State Board of Equalization and County Assessors. They will no longer be required to reassess the property to determine which seismic retrofits are covered and which are not covered under the old law. This decreases the workload and will save taxpayer dollars. Any loss in local property taxes from correcting this inequity in seismic safety retrofitting is minimal, which is why no organized opposition to this proposition exists.

The language for this proposition passed the Legislature unanimously. For seismic safety for all Californians—North, South, East and West—please vote Yes on Proposition 13.

ANALYSIS BY THE LEGISLATIVE ANALYST

BACKGROUND

Primary and General Elections. California generally holds two statewide elections in even-numbered years to elect candidates to state and federal offices—a primary election (in June) and a general election (in November). These elections (such as those for Governor and Members of Congress) are partisan, which means that most candidates are associated with a political party. For these partisan offices, the results of a primary election determine each party’s nominee for the office. The candidate receiving the most votes in a party primary election is that party’s nominee for the general election. In the general election, voters choose among all of the parties’ nominees, as well as any independent candidates. (Independent candidates—those not associated with a party—do not participate in primary elections.) The winner of the general election then serves a term in that office.

Ballot Materials Under Current Primary System. For every primary election, each county prepares a ballot and related materials for each political party. Those voters affiliated with political parties receive their party’s ballot. These party ballots include partisan offices, nonpartisan offices, and propositions. Voters with no party affiliation receive ballots related only to nonpartisan offices and propositions. Parties, however, may allow voters with no party affiliation to receive their party's ballot.
Partisan Statewide Elections in California. Partisan elections for state office include those for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Controller, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Insurance Commissioner, Attorney General, the 120 members of the Legislature, and four members of the State Board of Equalization. (The Superintendent of Public Instruction is a nonpartisan state office.) Partisan elections also are held for federal offices including President, Vice President, and Members of Congress.

PROPOSAL

This measure, which amends the State Constitution, changes the election process for most state and federal offices. Its provisions and related legislation would take effect for elections after January 1, 2011.

Creates a Top-Two Primary Election. This measure creates a single ballot for primary elections for those congressional and state elective offices shown in Figure 1. Candidates would indicate for the ballot either their political party (the party chosen on their voter registration) or no party preference. All candidates would be listed—including independent candidates, who now would appear on the primary ballot. Each voter would cast his or her vote using this single primary ballot. A voter registered with the Republican Party, for example, would be able to vote in the primary election for a candidate registered as a Democrat, a candidate registered as a Republican, or any other candidate. The two candidates with the highest number of votes in the primary election—regardless of their party preference—would advance to compete in the general election. In fact, the two candidates in the general election could have the same party preference.

Independent candidates do not participate in party primaries under the current system.
Does Not Affect Presidential Elections and Political Party Leadership Positions. Under this measure, there would still be partisan primary elections for presidential candidates and political party offices (including party central committees, party officials, and presidential delegates).

FISCAL EFFECTS

Minor Costs and Savings. This measure would change how elections officials prepare, print, and mail ballot materials. In some cases, these changes could increase these state and county costs. For instance, under this measure, all candidates—regardless of their party preference—would be listed on each primary election ballot. This would make these ballots longer. In other cases, the measure would reduce election costs. For example, by eliminating in some instances the need to prepare different primary ballots for each political party, counties sometimes would realize savings. For general election ballots, the measure would reduce the number of candidates (by only having the two candidates who received the most votes from the primary election on the ballot). This would make these ballots shorter. The direct costs and savings resulting from this measure would be relatively minor and would tend to offset each other. Accordingly, we estimate that the measure’s fiscal effects would not be significant for state and local governments.

Indirect Fiscal Effects Impossible to Estimate. In some cases, this measure would result in different individuals being elected to offices than under current law. Different officeholders would make different decisions about state and local government spending and revenues. These indirect fiscal effects of the measure are unknown and impossible to estimate.
Our economy is in crisis. Unemployment in California is over 12%.
The Legislature, whose members were all elected under the current rules, repeatedly fails to pass the state budget on time, or close the state’s gaping $20+ billion fiscal deficit.
Our state government is broken.
But the politicians would rather stick to their rigid partisan positions and appease the special interests than work together to solve California’s problems.
In order to change government we need to change the kind of people we send to the Capitol to represent us.
IT’S TIME TO END THE BICKERING AND GRIDLOCK AND FIX THE SYSTEM
The politicians won’t do it, but Proposition 14 will.
- Proposition 14 will open up primary elections. You will be able to vote for any candidate you wish for state and congressional offices, regardless of political party preference. It will reduce the gridlock by electing the best candidates.
- Proposition 14 will give independent voters an equal voice in primary elections.
- Proposition 14 will help elect more practical office-holders who are more open to compromise.

“The best part of the open primary is that it would lessen the influence of the major parties, which are now under control of the special interests.” (Fresno Bee, 2/22/09.)
PARTISANSHIP IS RUNNING OUR STATE INTO THE GROUND
Non-partisan measures like Proposition 14 will push our elected officials to begin working together for the common good.

Politicians wrote Proposition 14 to change the law so they can conceal their party affiliation on the election ballot.
Voters won’t know whether they are choosing a Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, or Green Party candidate.
The proponents claim their measure will stop partisan politics. But how is allowing politicians to hide their party affiliation going to fix partisanship? Proposition 14 is politicians trying to trick voters into thinking they are “independent.”

What the proponents don’t tell you is that special interests are raising hundreds of thousands of dollars to pass Proposition 14, including money from health insurance corporations, developers and financial institutions, because Proposition 14 will make it easier for them to elect candidates they “choose.” But you won’t know which political party the candidate belongs to.
Proposition 14 will decrease voter choice. It prohibits write-in candidates in general elections. Only the top two vote getters advance to the general election regardless of political party. Special interests with money will have the advantage in electing candidates they support.

Currently, only two states use “top-two” elections. In 2008, Washington State had 139 races and only ONE incumbent lost a primary. Proposition 14 will protect incumbents.
California Nurses, Firefighters and Teachers have joined with groups like the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association to oppose Proposition 14. These organizations don’t usually agree on political issues. But this time they do.
Candidates who ask for your vote shouldn’t be allowed to conceal their political party.
Stop the special interest tricks. No on Proposition 14.

Proposition 14 was written in the middle of the night and put on the ballot by a couple of politicians and Arnold Schwarzenegger. They added their own self-serving little twist. They call it an “open primary” but CANDIDATES WILL BE ALLOWED TO CONCEAL THEIR PARTY AFFILIATION FROM VOTERS. The current requirement that candidates list their party on the ballot is abolished. Proposition 14 will also decrease voter choice and make elections more expensive:
• The general election will not allow write-in candidates.
• Elections will cost more money at a time when necessary services like firefighters, police and education are being cut. County election officials predict an increased cost of 30 percent.
• Voter choice will be reduced because the top two vote getters advance to the general election regardless of political party.
• This means voters may be forced to choose between two candidates from the same political party. Democrats could be forced to choose between two Republicans, or not vote at all. Republicans could be forced to choose between two Democrats, or not vote at all.
• Independent and smaller political parties like Greens and Libertarians will be forced off the ballot, further reducing choice.

Can’t politicians ever do anything without scheming something that’s in their self-interest?

Here’s the zinger they stuck in Proposition 14 . . .

“Open Candidate Disclosure. At the time they file to run for public office, all candidates shall have the choice to declare a party preference. The names of candidates who choose not to declare a party preference shall be accompanied by the designation ‘No Party Preference’ on both the primary and general election ballots.”

Very clever! They’re making it look like they are “independents” while actually remaining in their political party. Business as usual disguised as “reform.”

POLITICIANS ARE CHANGING THE LEGAL REQUIREMENT THAT MAKES THEM DISCLOSE THEIR POLITICAL PARTY.

Democrats will end up voting for Republican imposters. Republicans will end up voting for Democratic imposters.

Special interest groups will pump money into trick candidates . . . imposters with hidden agendas we can’t see.

Currently, when a rogue candidate captures a nomination, voters have the ability to write-in the candidate of their choice in the general election. But a hidden provision PROHIBITS WRITE-IN VOTES from being counted in general elections if Prop. 14 passes.

That means if one of the “top two” primary winners is convicted of a crime or discovered to be a member of an extremist group, voters are out of luck because Prop. 14 ends write-in voting.

Firefighters have joined with teachers, nurses and the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association opposing this initiative.

Proposition 14 is supported by people like you who are sick of the mess in Sacramento and Washington D.C. and want to do something about it.

The opponents of Proposition 14 are primarily special interests who helped create this mess and benefit from the way things are.

Their claims are deceptive and absurd.

FACT: If Proposition 14 passes, every candidate’s party registration for the past decade will be posted publicly. This means no candidate will be able to mislead voters about their party registration history. And it’s more disclosure than is required of candidates today.

FACT: Proposition 14 will have no significant financial impacts whatsoever.

Why do opponents of reform make these false charges? Because they benefit from a system that is broken.

Vote yes on 14 to:
• Reduce gridlock by electing the best candidates to state office and Congress, regardless of political party;
• Give independent voters an equal voice in primary elections; and
• Elect more practical individuals who can work together for the common good.

CALIFORNIA FAIR ELECTIONS ACT.

- This act repeals the ban on public funding of political campaigns.
- Creates a voluntary system for candidates for Secretary of State to qualify for a public campaign grant if they agree to limitations on spending and private contributions.
- Candidates would have to qualify before receiving the grant.
- Candidates who demonstrate sufficient public support would receive the same amount.
- Participating candidates would be prohibited from raising or spending money beyond the grant.
- There would be strict enforcement and accountability with published reports open to the public.
- Funded by voluntary contributions and a biennial fee on lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers.

Summary of Legislative Analyst’s Estimate of Net State and Local Government Fiscal Impact:

- Increased revenues (mostly from charges on lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers) totaling over $6 million every four years. These funds would be spent on public financing for campaigns of Secretary of State candidates for the 2014 and 2018 elections.

ANALYSIS BY THE LEGISLATIVE ANALYST

BACKGROUND

Ban on Public Funds to Pay for Campaigns. State law bans the use of public funds for political candidates’ campaigns. This ban extends to all elected offices at the state level and most elected offices at the local level. (Using powers that they already have under the State Constitution, a small number of charter cities have created programs for the public financing of candidates for certain local offices.)

Entities That Oversee Campaign Finance Laws. The state’s campaign finance laws are administered by the Fair Political Practices Commission (commission) and the Secretary of State. Under state law, individuals and groups must disclose how much money has been given, received, and spent on political campaigns. This information is available to the public on the Secretary of State’s Web site. The commission monitors candidates and donors, and it can assess fines on candidates and donors who violate election laws.

Lobbyist Registration Administered by Secretary of State. The Secretary of State is elected statewide every four years and serves as the state’s chief elections official. The Secretary of State also has other duties, such as monitoring activities of lobbyists. Lobbying is the act of communicating directly with public officials in order to influence governmental actions on behalf of the lobbyist’s employer or client. Every two years, lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers must register with the Secretary of State. There is currently a $25 fee related to each lobbyist to cover the administrative expenses of registration.

PROPOSAL

As shown in Figure 1, this measure:

- Lifts the ban on public funding for political campaigns.
- Establishes a public funding system for campaigns for the office of Secretary of State.
- Requires lobbyists to pay higher charges for this public campaign funding.

Lifts the Ban on Public Funding for Political Campaigns

This measure eliminates the ban on using public funding for political campaigns for elected office. This would allow the Legislature—and, in some cases, city, county, and other local elected policy makers—to create public financing programs in the future. As described below, this measure creates a public financing program only for the office of Secretary of State.
Analysis | 21

Establishes Public Funding System for Secretary of State Campaigns

Public Funding Levels and Requirements for Primary Election Campaigns

$5 Qualifying Contributions. To receive public funds for a primary election campaign, a candidate for Secretary of State would have to collect a certain number of $5 contributions (“qualifying contributions”) from registered voters. Candidates seeking a nomination from a major party (that is, a party that earned at least 10 percent of the votes in the last gubernatorial or Secretary of State election) must collect 7,500 qualifying contributions (a total of $37,500). Candidates in other parties must collect 3,750 qualifying contributions (a total of $18,750). (The Democratic Party and the Republican Party currently count as major parties under this measure. Other parties now count as “minor parties,” but could become major parties based on performance in future elections.) Candidates choosing not to participate would fund campaigns from private sources under existing rules.

Funding for Eligible Candidates in Primary Elections. Figure 2 summarizes funding amounts and other requirements under this measure for Secretary of State campaigns. Participating candidates competing for a major party’s nomination would receive a base level of funding of $1 million for the primary election. These candidates would receive additional funds (“matching funds”) to equal the money spent by nonparticipating candidates or outside groups trying to influence the election. Participating candidates could receive up to an additional $4 million of these matching funds for the primary. For example, if a nonparticipating candidate were to raise and spend $3 million and another interest group were to spend $2 million in favor of the nonparticipating candidate, the participating candidate would be eligible to receive $5 million—$1 million in base funding, and $4 million in matching funds. Eligible candidates from minor parties would receive $200,000 in base funding. These minor party candidates also could receive the matching funds described above—up to an additional $800,000—if they demonstrate broader support by collecting 15,000 qualifying contributions (a total of $75,000) instead of 3,750.

Public Funding Levels and Requirements for General Election Campaigns

Winning a Party’s Primary Election. In order to receive public financing for a general election campaign, a party candidate must have participated in the public financing program in the primary election campaign. Candidates who participate in the public financing program in the primary election must follow program rules if they proceed to the general election.

Independent Candidates. Independent candidates—that is, those not affiliated with any party—would not have participated in a primary election. These candidates must collect 15,000 qualifying contributions to receive the same level of public financing in the general election as major party candidates who participate.
Funding for Eligible Candidates in General Election. The base level of funding for major party candidates and independent or minor party candidates demonstrating broader support is $1.3 million for the general election campaign. Similar to the primary election campaign, eligible candidates would receive additional matching funds to equal the money spent by nonparticipating candidates or outside groups trying to influence the election. Eligible candidates could receive up to an additional $5.2 million of these matching funds. Other eligible candidates from minor parties would only receive $325,000 in base funding.

Other Requirements to Receive Public Funds for Campaigns

To receive public funds for the primary or general election campaign, candidates for Secretary of State would have to follow new rules and requirements described below.

Private Contributions Restricted. To receive public funding, a candidate could not accept private campaign funding, with four main exceptions:

- First, candidates must collect the $5 qualifying contributions. (These qualifying contributions would be deposited into the fund supporting the public financing program, as described below.)
- Second, beginning 18 months prior to a primary election, candidates could collect and spend start-up contributions, or “seed money.” (These funds could be spent, for example, to pay costs for collecting the qualifying contributions.) The measure restricts seed money contributions to $100 for each registered voter, and total contributions would be limited to $75,000 per campaign.
- Third, candidates could accept a certain amount of contributions from political parties—5 percent of the base level of public funds in each of the primary election and the general election—that is, up to $50,000 for the primary election campaign, and $65,000 for the general election campaign.
- Fourth, in the event that the program did not have enough funds to give to eligible candidates, candidates could raise from private donors the difference between what they were entitled to receive from the state and what they actually received.

Use of Funds. The public funds could only be used for direct campaign expenses. The measure contains various restrictions to prevent funds from being used for other purposes.

Other Requirements. Publicly funded candidates also would be subject to other requirements. For example, they would have to participate in debates with other candidates before each election and submit campaign expenditure records to the commission. In addition, aside from initial seed money, candidates could not use their personal funds to pay for campaign costs or raise funds for other candidates in other campaigns or for political parties.

Other Provisions

Smaller Awards if There Are Insufficient Funds. If the commission determines that there is not enough money in the program to fund all eligible candidates, the commission would reduce the grants proportionately to all eligible candidates. If there are insufficient funds, participating candidates would be allowed to raise money up to the amount that they were entitled to receive from the public financing program.

Rules for Those Not in the Public Funding Program. Secretary of State candidates could choose not to participate in the public financing program. in the public funding program. As soon as a nonparticipating candidate begins to spend more than the base amount of funding for participating candidates, the nonparticipating candidate must report his or her campaign spending to the commission electronically within 24 hours. Other individuals or groups that spend more than $2,500 in a year to influence the outcome of the Secretary of State’s race also must report such spending within 24 hours.

Amounts Adjusted by Inflation. Every four years, the commission would adjust seed money limitations and public funding amounts for the program by the rate of inflation.

Expires January 1, 2019. This measure would end public financing for Secretary of State campaigns on January 1, 2019. Public financing, therefore, would be in place for the 2014 and 2018 elections. The Legislature, however, could extend this expiration date by passing a bill signed by the Governor.

Interaction With Other Measure on the June 2010 Ballot. Proposition 14 on this ballot would change the primary and general election process for state offices, including for the Secretary of State. The nearby box discusses how this measure interacts with Proposition 14.

Proposition 14 and This Measure

If approved, Proposition 14—a constitutional amendment also on this ballot—would change the primary and general election system for state offices, including Secretary of State. Proposition 14 makes changes that could conflict with the proposed statutory provisions of the public campaign funding system under this measure. For example, a potential conflict is this measure’s linking of certain funding decisions to participation in a partisan primary election, which would no longer exist if Proposition 14 were to pass.

If both measures pass, conflicting provisions of these two measures would have to be reconciled through additional legislation, judicial action, or a future ballot measure.

Requires Lobbyists to Pay Higher Charges

Fair Elections Fund Established. The public funds for Secretary of State campaigns would be paid out of a new Fair Elections Fund, which would be funded by increased charges on lobbyists, qualifying contributions, potential voluntary tax check-off donations (on state personal income tax forms), and other sources.

Increases Charges Related to Lobbyists. This measure requires charges for lobbyists, lobbyist firms, and lobbyist employers of $700 every two years. The measure requires that these charges be adjusted by the rate of inflation in the future. These charges likely would be the main source of money for the public funding program. As of January 2010, over 4,300 individuals and groups were registered as lobbyists, lobbying firms, or lobbyist employers. If similar numbers of registrations were to occur in the future, this source of revenue would raise about $6 million every four-year election cycle.

Administrative Costs. The measure allows up to 10 percent of all money deposited to the Fair Election Fund every four years to pay for administering the public funding program. Such funds would be paid to the Secretary of State’s office, the commission, and other departments with new duties under this measure.

FISCAL EFFECTS

New State Revenues. We estimate that this measure would raise more than $6 million every four years. This includes funds from the lobbyist charge, as well as qualifying contributions. This amount would grow with inflation in future years. It is possible that other revenues would be generated from voluntary tax check-off donations and other sources.

New State Costs. The new funds would pay for costs associated with the measure. The costs paid from the new Fair Elections Fund to administer this measure could not exceed 10 percent of moneys deposited into the fund—about $600,000 every four years. The remaining funds would be available for candidates for Secretary of State who choose to receive public funds for their political campaigns. The amount of spending on the public funding of Secretary of State election campaigns would depend on a number of factors and vary from election to election. Among the factors affecting this spending would be:

- The number of candidates accepting public funds.
- The amount of money spent by candidates not receiving public funds (which would be a factor in determining the level of any additional matching funds payments).

Based on the amount of campaign spending for Secretary of State candidates in recent elections, total costs would most likely be between $5 million and $8 million per campaign. If there are not sufficient funds available to provide all candidates with the amounts envisioned under the measure, public funding provided to the candidates would have to be reduced so that overall expenses do not exceed the funds available to the program.

Analysis
Special interest campaign contributors have too much influence over our state government and must be stopped.

California government is broken. The state budget crisis is crippling our economy. Education funding is at a historic low. Vital services for seniors and people with disabilities are being decimated. Businesses are closing their doors while middle class families struggle to make ends meet.

But rather than solving California’s problems, politicians are busy raising money for their campaigns. We need to get politicians out of the fundraising game so that they will focus on our priorities.

THE AMOUNT OF MONEY IN POLITICS IS OUTRAGEOUS AND CORRUPTING THE SYSTEM

According to the Fair Political Practices Commission, over $1 billion has been raised by California politicians since 2000. All this fundraising buys access for the special interests, shutting out the rest of us.

We need to change the way we finance election campaigns so politicians stay focused on the job we sent them to accomplish.

Prop 15 creates a voluntary pilot program to provide limited public financing for Secretary of State candidates in the 2014 and 2018 elections.

UNDER PROP 15:

• Candidates who agree to use public funds MUST PROVE THEY HAVE SUBSTANTIAL SUPPORT by getting signatures and $5 contributions from 7,500 registered voters.

• PARTICIPATING CANDIDATES ARE BANNED FROM RAISING OR SPENDING MONEY BEYOND THE LIMITED FUNDS.

• SPENDING LIMITS AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS ARE STRICTLY ENFORCED. Candidates can only spend on legitimate expenses. Violators would face fines, possible jail time, and prohibitions from running for office in the future.

• TAXPAYERS AND PUBLIC FUNDS ARE PROTECTED. It will not increase taxes or take away from other important programs.

POLITICIANS SPEND TOO MUCH TIME RAISING MONEY

We have many serious problems to fix in California, from our schools to the state budget to the economy, but our elected officials spend too much time in fundraisers and not enough time doing what they are elected to do.

The League of Women Voters of California says: “We need to eliminate Big Money’s unfair influence on elected officials who ultimately decide the public policies that affect us most. Passing Prop 15 will allow elected officials to start focusing on the public’s interests, instead of returning political favors to their campaign donors.”

The California Nurses Association says: “Insurance and pharmaceutical companies undermine healthcare reform through massive spending to influence candidates. Prop 15 helps to get big money out of important public policy.”

There are plenty of qualified Californians with good ideas who can’t compete in today’s money-driven elections. PROP 15 WILL OPEN UP THE PROCESS SO OUR SECRETARY OF STATE IS THE PERSON WITH THE BEST IDEAS AND EXPERIENCE, NOT JUST THE BEST FUNDRAISER.

Join the bipartisan coalition of nurses, teachers, small business owners, good government experts, public safety officials, consumer groups, seniors, investors, environmentalists, faith communities, Democrats, Republicans and Independents in voting Yes on Prop 15. Proposition 15 doesn’t do anything to solve California’s problems. What it DOES DO is give taxpayer money to politicians to pay for negative ads and junk mailers.

NO ACCOUNTABILITY

Under Prop 15, there’s almost no restriction on how candidates spend our tax money. As has happened elsewhere, they could even put relatives or friends on the campaign payroll at taxpayer expense!

Worse, if there isn’t enough money to pay for every eligible candidate’s campaign, the politicians can take money intended for important existing programs and divert it to fund their political campaigns.

NO VOTER APPROVAL NEEDED TO EXPAND PROP 15

Prop 15 is specifically written to allow the politicians to expand this measure WITHOUT VOTER APPROVAL to cover every state campaign. This tricky provision could result in the SAME POLITICIANS who have FAILED to solve California’s problems being rewarded with our tax dollars to fund their campaigns.

POLITICIANS CAN CONTINUE TO RAISE SPECIAL INTEREST MONEY AND ALSO GET TAX DOLLARS

Prop 15 cynically claims to hurt special interests. In fact, under Prop 15 politicians will be able to get taxpayer dollars to run their campaign AND ALSO RAISE unlimited funds from special interest groups for a variety of purposes. That’s outrageous!

PROP 15 RAISES TAXES

The backers of Prop 15 want you to think it’s a free lunch. In fact, Prop 15 raises over $6 million in NEW TAXES to pay for the campaigns of politicians.

Don’t be fooled. Prop 15 is NOT effective campaign reform. Please vote NO.

ARGUMENT AGAINST PROPOSITION 15

California has many serious needs, but giving taxpayer money to politicians to fund their campaigns isn’t one of them. Here are five good reasons to vote NO ON PROPOSITION 15:

PROPOSITION 15 IS A TRICK

Over 20 years ago, voters PROHIBITED taxpayer funds from being given to politicians for their political campaigns. Proposition 15 is a sneaky attempt by those same politicians to undo that prohibition. The text of Proposition 15 says “Section 85300 of the Government Code is repealed” but the politicians who wrote Proposition 15 don’t want you to know what that means. Here’s what Proposition 15 repeals:

“...no candidate shall accept any public moneys for the purpose of seeking elective office.”

This tricky maneuver gives the LEGISLATURE power to EXPAND taxpayer financing for their own campaigns WITHOUT GETTING VOTER APPROVAL!

PROPOSITION 15 DOES NOT STOP THE INFLUENCE OF SPECIAL INTEREST MONEY

Proposition 15 doesn’t do what it promises. It claims to curb the influence of special interests and lobbyists. Lobbyists are already PROHIBITED from contributing to candidates. Cynically, Prop. 15 actually forces lobbyists to fund the campaigns of candidates for Secretary of State, the same official who regulates lobbyists!

“...it would have been wrong for my campaign to have been funded by the very special interests I regulated as Secretary of State.”— Bill Jones, Former Secretary of State

PROPOSITION 15 IS FULL OF HIDDEN LOOPTHES

Proposition 15 has a giant loophole that lets these same candidates raise money from special interests for their own legal defense (including criminal defense) AND even the candidate’s own Inaugural party!

“You just can’t trust politicians to write the campaign laws.”— Gabriella Holt, President, Citizens for California Reform

TAXPAYER FINANCING OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS IS A BAD IDEA

Proposition 15 gives millions of taxpayer dollars to any eligible candidate no matter what the candidate is or what the candidate stands for. In fact, there’s almost no restriction on how candidates spend the money. Do you really want your taxpayer dollars being used to pay for negative ads and junk mail?

“We need less negative campaigning, and we certainly don’t need taxpayers to pay for it.”— Colleen McAndrews, Former Commissioner, Fair Political Practices Commission

PROPOSITION 15 RAISES TAXES

Just last year, the Legislature raised taxes by $12 billion and they still couldn’t balance the state budget. Now, they want you to approve even more NEW TAXES—Over $6 million in new taxes on small businesses, non-profits, and even charities.

But that’s not all—a hidden provision in Proposition 15 says that if the new taxes aren’t enough to fund every eligible candidate’s political campaign, then the Legislature can use “any other sources of revenue from the General Fund or from other sources as determined by the Legislature.” You know what that means—MORE TAXES!

“The last thing California needs is more taxes to fund unnecessary programs.”— Jon Coupal, President, Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association

REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST PROPOSITION 15

DON’T BE MISLED BY SPECIAL INTEREST LOBBYISTS!

PROPOSITION 15 WAS WRITTEN BY INDEPENDENT, NONPARTISAN CITIZEN GROUPS AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW EXPERTS. It repeals restrictions on public financing written 20 years ago that stop Californians from changing the way we finance election campaigns. Prop 15 frees the Secretary of State—the referee of our elections—from the influence of special interest money.

YOU CAN’T TRUST OPPONENTS’ CLAIMS. They say Proposition 15 is funded by “taxes” when it is actually funded by voluntary donations and an annual $350 registration fee on lobbyists and interest groups that hire them. Currently, lobbyists pay only $12.50 per year!

LOBBYISTS DON’T WANT TO SEE CANDIDATES RUN FOR OFFICE WITHOUT BEGGING FOR CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE SPECIAL INTERESTS THEY REPRESENT.

PRO 15 TAKES AWAY THEIR POWER—THAT IS THE REAL REASON LOBBYISTS OPPOSE PROP 15.

“Proposition 15 WOHN’T RAISE TAXES” or take funds from other programs. It simply places reasonable fees on lobbyists to get Secretary of State candidates out of the fundraising game.”—Richard Holober, Executive Director, Consumer Federation of California

PROP 15 IS TOUGH

It imposes strict new limits on how much money participating candidates can spend and what they spend it on. Politicians and special interests who violate the law will face possible jail time.

Prop 15 will end the dominance of wealthy candidates and donors, so politicians are accountable to their constituents—not their contributors.

Provision of Electricity Service in California

California Electricity Providers. Californians generally receive their electricity service from one of three types of providers: investor-owned utilities (IOUs), local publicly owned electric utilities, or electric service providers (ESPs). These provide 68 percent, 24 percent, and 8 percent, respectively, of retail electricity service in the state.

Investor-Owned Utilities. The IOUs are owned by private investors and provide electricity service for profit. The three largest electricity IOUs in the state are Pacific Gas and Electric (PG&E), Southern California Edison, and San Diego Gas and Electric. Each IOU has a unique, defined geographic service area and is required by law to serve customers in that area. The California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) regulates the rates charged by IOUs and how they provide electricity service to their customers.

Publicly Owned Utilities. Publicly owned electric utilities are public entities that provide electricity service to residents and businesses in their local area. While not regulated by CPUC, publicly owned electric utilities are governed by locally elected boards which set their own terms of service, including the rates charged to their customers. Electricity service is currently provided by local governments through several different governmental structures authorized under state law, including:

- Utility departments of cities, such as the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power.
- Municipal utility districts, such as the Sacramento Municipal Utility District (SMUD).
- Public utility districts, such as the Truckee Donner Public Utility District.
- Irrigation districts, such as the Imperial Irrigation District.
Electric Service Providers. The ESPs provide electricity to customers who have chosen not to receive electricity from the IOU or publicly owned utility that would otherwise serve their geographic area. Under this approach, an electricity customer enters into what is termed a “direct access” contract with an ESP that delivers electricity to the customer through the local utility’s transmission and distribution system.

The Creation and Expansion of Publicly Provided Electricity Services

Community Choice Aggregation. In addition to the ESP arrangements discussed above, state law allows a city or a county, or a combination of the two, to arrange to provide electricity within their jurisdiction through a contract with an electricity provider other than the IOU that would otherwise serve that local area. This is referred to as “community choice aggregation.” Although only one community choice aggregator (CCA) currently exists to provide electricity in California, several communities are exploring this option. A CCA could get its electricity from an ESP, using the transmission and distribution system of the IOU serving that local area. Electricity customers within that area would automatically get their electricity from the CCA unless they elected to continue to receive service from the IOU.

Proposals to Create and Expand Public Electricity Providers. In recent years, a limited number of local governments in the state have explored the idea of creating new public providers of electricity or expanding publicly owned utilities into new territory currently served by an IOU. For example, the City and County of San Francisco has considered creating a CCA that would include territory currently served by PG&E. As another example, Yolo County explored having SMUD provide electricity service to territory within the county currently served by PG&E. In some cases, these proposals have been put before the voters for their approval, under provisions of state law discussed below.

Voter Approval Requirements for Publicly Owned Electricity Providers. As noted above, publicly owned utilities can be organized under several different types of government structures. Each type of local government entity that is authorized to provide electricity service, and that is considering either the start-up of electricity service or the expansion of existing service beyond its current service area, is subject to certain state requirements.

Various statutes specify whether voter approval is required for the start-up of electricity service by authorized local government entities. Under state law, if a local government intends to expand its electricity service into a new territory, that new area must be annexed and, in certain cases, a majority of the voters in the area proposed for annexation must approve the expansion. In such cases, however, no vote of the public is generally required within the existing service territory of the local governmental entity that is proposing the expansion. (In some cases, a local commission requires such a vote as a condition of approving the annexation.) In contrast, local agency action to create and begin implementation of a CCA may be undertaken upon a vote of the local agency governing board and does not require local voter approval.

PROPOSAL

The measure places new voter approval requirements on local governments before they can use “public funds”—defined broadly in the measure to include tax revenues, various forms of debt, and ratepayer funds—to start up electricity service, expand electricity service into a new territory, or implement a CCA.

• First, before an authorized local government entity can start up electricity service, it must receive approval by two-thirds of the voters in the area proposed to be served.
• Second, before an existing publicly owned utility can expand its electric delivery service into a new territory, it must receive approval by two-thirds of the voters in the area currently served by the utility and two-thirds of the voters in the new area proposed to be served.

• Third, the measure requires two-thirds voter approval for a local government to implement a CCA.

The measure provides three exemptions to local governments from these voter approval requirements:

• If the use of public funds has been previously approved by the voters both within the existing local jurisdiction and the territory proposed for expansion.
• If the public funds would be used solely to purchase, provide, or supply specified types of electricity from renewable sources, such as wind or solar power.
• If the public funds would be used only to provide electric delivery service for the local government’s own use.

FISCAL EFFECTS

Local Administrative Costs for Elections. Because this measure requires voter approval for specified local government actions that can currently be accomplished without such votes, it would result in additional elections costs. These costs would primarily be related to preparing and mailing election-related materials. In most cases, the balloting could be consolidated with already scheduled elections. As a result, the increased election-related costs due to this measure would probably be minor.

Potential Impact on State and Local Government Costs and Revenues. This measure could affect local government costs and revenues due to its potential effects on the operation of publicly owned utilities and CCAs. It could also affect the finances of state and local government agencies in California because of its potential impact on electricity rates. These effects would largely depend upon future actions of voters and local governments. We discuss these potential effects in more detail below.

First, the new public voter approval requirements for the start-up or expansion of publicly owned utilities or the implementation of CCAs could result in public disapproval of such changes. Also, the existence of these new voter approval requirements could deter some local government agencies from proceeding with such plans. To the extent that this occurred, these local government agencies would be somewhat smaller in size and have fewer customers than would otherwise be the case. As a result, they would have lower total revenues and costs.

Second, the enactment of this measure could also affect the finances of state and local government agencies in California due to its potential impact on electricity rates. As noted above, some local government agencies might not start up or expand a publicly owned utility into a new territory or implement a CCA as a result of the measure’s new voter approval requirements. In this event, the rates paid by electricity customers in that and neighboring jurisdictions could be higher or lower than would otherwise have been the case. For example, if this measure prevented the expansion of publicly provided electrical service that depended upon the construction of new energy infrastructure, rates might be held lower than might otherwise occur. On the other hand, if this measure lessened the competitive pressures on private electricity providers by reducing the opportunities for expansion of publicly provided electrical service, the rates charged to electricity customers might eventually be higher than otherwise. These impacts could affect state and local government costs, since many public agencies are themselves large consumers of electricity. To the extent that changes in electricity rates affect business profits, sales, and taxable income, these factors could also affect state and local tax revenues.

In the short run, the net fiscal effect of all of these factors on the finances of state and local government agencies is unlikely to be significant on a statewide basis. This is due to the relatively limited number of local government agencies considering the start-up or expansion of electricity services into new territory. In the long run, the net fiscal effect of the measure is unknown and would depend on future actions of local governments and voters.

IMPOSES NEW TWO-THIRDS VOTER APPROVAL REQUIREMENT FOR LOCAL PUBLIC ELECTRICITY PROVIDERS. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

★ ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF PROPOSITION 16 ★

Vote YES on Proposition 16, the Taxpayers Right to Vote Act.

Proposition 16, the Taxpayers Right to Vote Act, does one simple thing: It requires voter approval before local governments can spend public money or incur public debt to get into the electricity business. And like most local special tax and bond decisions in California, two-thirds voter approval will be required.

In tough economic times like these, local voters have every right to have the final say on an issue as important as who provides them with local electric service, and how much it will cost.

Two-thirds voter approval is our best protection against costly and risky government schemes to take over local electric service.

Several local governments in California are trying to take over private electric businesses—often using eminent domain—and are refusing to let local voters have the final say in the decision, because state law doesn’t require it. This measure establishes clear voter approval requirements before local governments can spend public money or incur public debt to go into the local electricity business.

These days, with government spending out of control and mounting government debt—the best financial safeguard for taxpayers is to give voters the final say in these decisions.

Supporters of Proposition 16, the Taxpayers Right to Vote Act, including the California Taxpayers’ Association, the California Chamber of Commerce and Pacific Gas and Electric Company, believe that the voters should decide. It is our electric service, our public money and, in the end, it is everyone’s problem if a government-run electricity business fails. We, the voters, deserve the right to have the final say about how our money is spent.

★ REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF PROPOSITION 16 ★

Vote No on Proposition 16 to stop the worst case yet of a big special interest—this time it’s PG&E, the giant, for-profit private utility—misusing the initiative process.

Don’t let PG&E fool you. Proposition 16 doesn’t touch your taxes one way or the other. It’s all about PG&E maintaining its monopoly and eliminating its competition. That could mean higher electric bills and poorer service for all Californians—regardless of where you live.

PG&E is making up a threat that doesn’t exist to distract you. What’s really bothering PG&E is many communities are now choosing to purchase renewable energy at wholesale prices. We believe that residents should be allowed to have the choice of buying electricity at lower cost without requiring a 2/3 supermajority vote. But that choice is what PG&E designed Proposition 16 to stop.

So when you see TV ads for Proposition 16, remember that most of the money for each one came from people’s utility bills. The Utility Reform Network says, “It’s just wrong for PG&E to take money from families, and then spend it on a political campaign to benefit itself.” Especially considering that PG&E recently paid big bonuses to its executives after going bankrupt—just like Wall Street.

The League of Women Voters of California urges you to Vote NO, joining AARP, every newspaper that’s reviewed it, and groups representing California’s consumers, taxpayers, environmentalists and farmers. Vote NO to give local, nonprofit utilities the chance to compete for your service—with low-cost, renewable energy.

ARGUMENT AGAINST PROPOSITION 16

Proposition 16 does two things:
First, it drastically limits your choices on who provides you with electricity.
Second, it makes it easier for the for-profit utilities in California to raise your electricity rates.

It’s cleverly written, because the backers of Proposition 16 want to fool the voters. They say this measure is about protecting taxpayers. But what it really protects is the monopoly enjoyed by a giant, for-profit electric utility.

You should be allowed to have more choices in who provides your electricity, if those choices would give you lower cost and better service. Vote No on Proposition 16.

Most people would agree that if a local nonprofit organization wants to buy green power at wholesale rates, and sell it to communities at an affordable cost, it should be allowed to do so. But Proposition 16 makes it just about impossible.

Severely limiting your choice in the source of your electricity. No lower cost green energy. Fewer choices and higher costs. That’s what Proposition 16 does to you.

Who’s the sole sponsor of Proposition 16?
PG&E, the largest for-profit utility in the state. When this argument was written, PG&E had contributed $6.5 million to the "yes" campaign and signaled they’re prepared to spend tens of millions more. PG&E was the only contributor to put this proposition on the ballot.

Why? Again, PG&E wants to protect its monopoly. Proposition 16 isn’t about protecting taxpayers—it’s about protecting PG&E’s for-profit monopoly on electricity.

Just read the ballot title and summary, and you’ll see. As the Fresno Bee put it, “The PG&E ballot measure (Proposition 16) is another example of the initiative process going awry in California, of a powerful special interest seizing the initiative process for its own narrow benefit.”

AARP urges No on Proposition 16 because by restricting competition, Proposition 16 could mean higher electricity costs for you. A No vote protects you against the potential for crippling rate hikes.

In fact, PG&E and other for-profit utilities already charge higher rates than municipal, nonprofit utilities. And now they want to increase rates another $5 billion.

The Consumer Federation of California says VOTE NO because like Wall Street, PG&E paid huge bonuses to its executives, even after it went bankrupt and ratepayers bailed it out. Now PG&E wants to lock-in its monopoly once and for all—so smaller, local nonprofit utilities are not allowed to compete.

Sierra Club says VOTE NO because Proposition 16 requires a 2/3 supermajority vote before communities can purchase clean power and other power at competitive prices. These community choice programs are voluntary and do not raise taxes.

Proposition 16 “is a dagger aimed directly at a movement to enable municipalities to offer renewable green power to their residents in competition with private utilities,” said Michael Hiltzik, a columnist for the Los Angeles Times.

Say NO to another wasteful initiative that says one thing but really does something very different. Vote No on Proposition 16 to keep money in your pocket and to protect your utility choices.

REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST PROPOSITION 16

Why are the opponents of Proposition 16 afraid to give taxpayers the right to vote? Voting gives you the ultimate choice on how government spends your money. Opponents of Proposition 16 want to deny you that right.

Opponents of Proposition 16 are not telling the truth. Let’s be clear:
• Proposition 16 does NOT affect electric rates.
• Proposition 16 does NOT threaten green power.

Yes on Proposition 16 simply gives taxpayers the right to vote before local governments spend your money or go deeper into debt to get into the retail electricity business.

The last time government thought they knew more about the electricity business than the electric utility companies, we had the 2001 energy crisis. Rates skyrocketed and we had rolling blackouts. The cost to consumers was devastating and it created chaos throughout California.

Yes on Proposition 16. Voter approval is everyone’s best protection against costly and risky local government schemes to get into the retail electricity business.

ALLOWS AUTO INSURANCE COMPANIES TO BASE THEIR PRICES IN PART ON A DRIVER’S HISTORY OF INSURANCE COVERAGE. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

- Changes current law to permit insurance companies to offer a discount to drivers who have continuously maintained their auto insurance coverage, even if they change their insurance company, and notwithstanding the ban on using the absence of prior insurance for purposes of pricing.
- Will allow insurance companies to increase cost of insurance to drivers who do not have a history of continuous insurance coverage.
- Establishes that lapses in coverage due to nonpayment of premiums may prevent a driver from qualifying for the discount.

Summary of Legislative Analyst’s Estimate of Net State and Local Government Fiscal Impact:
- Probably no significant fiscal effect on state insurance premium tax revenues.
BACKGROUND

Automobile insurance is one of the major types of insurance purchased by California residents. It accounted for about $19.7 billion (36 percent) of all premiums collected by California insurers in 2008. Among the types of automobile insurance coverage available is bodily injury liability, which provides protection in the event a motorist physically injures someone else.

State Regulation of Automobile Insurance. In 1988, California voters passed Proposition 103, which requires the Insurance Commissioner to review and approve rate changes for certain types of insurance, including automobile insurance, before changes to the rates can take effect. Proposition 103 also requires that rates and premiums for automobile insurance policies be set by applying the following rating factors in decreasing order of importance: (1) the insured's driving safety record, (2) the number of miles they drive each year, and (3) the number of years they have been driving.

The Insurance Commissioner may adopt additional rating factors to determine automobile rates and premiums. Currently, 16 optional rating factors may be used for these purposes. For example, insurance companies may provide discounts to individuals for being long-term customers of theirs. Insurance companies are prohibited, however, from offering this kind of discount to new customers who switch to them from other insurers.

In addition, Proposition 103 contains a provision related to individuals who were previously uninsured. Specifically, Proposition 103 prohibits insurance companies from using the information that an individual did not previously have automobile insurance to: (1) determine whether the individual is eligible for coverage or (2) decide the premiums charged for coverage.

Insurance Premium Tax. Insurance companies doing business in California currently pay an insurance premium tax instead of the state corporate income tax. The tax is based on the amount of insurance premiums earned in the state each year for automobile insurance as well as for other types of insurance coverage. In 2008, insurance companies paid about $247 million in premium tax revenues on automobile policies in California. These revenues are deposited into the state General Fund.

PROPOSAL

This measure amends Proposition 103 to allow an insurance company to offer a “continuous coverage” discount on automobile insurance policies to new customers who switch their coverage from another insurer. If an insurance company chooses to provide such a discount, it must be based on the length of time the customer continuously had bodily injury liability coverage. Customers would generally be eligible for this discount so long as their coverage had not lapsed for more than 90 days in the past five years, except if any lapse was the result of a failure to pay the premium. Also, customers would still be eligible for this kind of discount under the measure if a lapse in coverage was due to military service in another country. Children residing with a parent could qualify for the discount based on their parent’s eligibility.

FISCAL EFFECTS

This measure could result in a change in the total amount of automobile insurance premiums earned by insurance companies in California and, therefore, the amount of premium tax revenues received by the state for the reasons discussed below.

On the one hand, the provision of continuous coverage discounts could reduce premium tax revenues received by the state. This would depend, however, on the extent to which insurers choose to offer such discounts to their customers, and the size of the discounts provided. On the other hand, insurers offering such discounts could make up for some or all of these discounts by charging higher premiums to some of its other customers.

The net impact on state premium tax revenues from this measure would probably not be significant. This is because overall premiums are predominately determined by other factors—such as driver safety, the number of miles driven, and years of driving experience—which are unaffected by the measure.
PROPOSITION 17 CAN SAVE YOU MONEY ON CAR INSURANCE

California’s economy has taken a toll on all of us—lost jobs, businesses closing and our savings getting smaller. Families need to save money wherever they can. Prop. 17 can help. Under current law, drivers who have maintained auto insurance with the same company are eligible for a continuous coverage discount.

However, a flaw in existing law prohibits drivers from taking this continuous coverage discount with them if they switch insurance companies to get lower rates.

The 80% of responsible drivers who maintain automobile insurance should not be penalized and lose their discount just because they change insurance companies.

Proposition 17 is simple and straightforward: You are eligible for the continuous coverage discount even if you change insurers.

Yes on 17 means:

• Your family could save HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS PER YEAR
• Increased COMPETITION
• More CHOICES AND OPTIONS for consumers

“If you have auto insurance, Proposition 17 can save your family as much as $250 a year. It rewards responsible drivers by allowing them to shop for the lowest rate while keeping their continuous coverage discount.”

• California Alliance for Consumer Protection
• California Chamber of Commerce
• California Senior Advocates League
• Small Business Action Committee
• California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce
• Consumers First, among others.

Many businesses and organizations support this measure, including Mercury Insurance, because it means increased competition in the insurance marketplace and new customers. Providing additional discounts is one way an insurance company can compete. More competition means lower rates for consumers!

PROPOSITION 17: MORE COMPETITION, LOWER RATES

Drivers don’t lose their good driver discount when they change insurers. They shouldn’t lose their continuous coverage discount just because they change insurers.

“Just like some stores honor their competitors’ coupons, Prop. 17 allows drivers to shop around for the best price and keep their continuous coverage discount, resulting in more choices, more competition and more savings.”

—Tom Hudson, Executive Director, California Taxpayer Protection Committee

DON’T FALL FOR OPPONENTS’ SCARE TACTICS

• Opponents are fighting a discount that will benefit the 80% of drivers who follow the law and maintain insurance.
• Current law (Section 1861.02) requires that insurance rates be based primarily on your driving safety record, miles driven annually and years of driving experience. This measure does not change that!
• Section 1861.024 (b) of the measure specifically protects drivers who must cancel coverage for economic hardship, illness, job-loss or any reason other than non-payment for a minimum of 90 days. They are still eligible for the discount.
• And lower income consumers will still be eligible for California’s Low Cost Auto insurance program.

“Prop. 17 protects the continuous coverage discount for soldiers that cancel insurance when they are sent overseas to serve our country.”

The proponents of Proposition 17, funded by Mercury Insurance Company, are trying to put one over on you. All they talk about is “discounts” and “competition.” Here’s what they don’t want you to know:

FACT: Prop 17 will increase car insurance premiums for millions of Californians who have done nothing wrong. It forces you to buy insurance—even if you stop driving—or you will get hit with surcharges of up to $1,000/year (based on Mercury’s numbers) when you start driving again . . . even if you are a good driver.

FACT: If you have a break in coverage for 91 days or more during the past five years, you’ll be charged more, no matter how legitimate the reason: illness, attending college, lost your job, even military service.

That’s why USAA, which serves our troops and their families, says: “Based on the potential harm to military personnel, we cannot support Prop. 17. They’re doing their duty to their country. But they could get pounded by this kind of law.”

FACT: 17 overturns a law passed by California voters in 1988 to make insurers compete fairly for customers.

FACT: Prop 17 is 99% funded by Mercury, which was caught “charging discriminatory rates to motorists who were not at fault in accidents, were members of the armed forces or worked in certain professions.” (Los Angeles Times, 2/15/10)

Consumer advocates agree: Vote NO ON PROPOSITION 17—It’s a deceptive insurance company initiative to raise auto insurance premiums for millions of California's struggling middle class families.

Proposition 17 changes our laws to favor big insurance companies like Mercury Insurance, the initiative’s sponsor, while hurting responsible drivers who have not done anything wrong.

The insurance backers of Prop 17 won’t tell you the whole story, but the California Department of Insurance does. It says Prop 17 “will result in a surcharge” for California drivers.

That’s why Consumers Union, nonprofit publisher of Consumer Reports, opposes Prop 17.

Prop 17 requires Californians who cancel auto insurance to pay a financial penalty to restart their coverage.

-> No on 17: It penalizes responsible drivers.

Prop 17 allows insurance companies to raise rates on customers with perfect driving records, just because they canceled insurance for as little as ninety-one days over the past five years. Drivers must pay this unfair penalty even if they did not own a car or need insurance in the past.

-> No on 17: It punishes our troops, among others.

This initiative raises rates on Californians who stop their insurance, including military serving stateside. PENALIZING THESE DRIVERS BY FORCING THEM TO PAY MORE when they restart their insurance is wrong.

-> No on 17: It hurts California’s middle class families.

In these tough times, many Californians are being forced to choose between driving and other necessities. If someone with a perfect driving record is late on just one payment, Prop 17 allows insurance companies to CHARGE DRIVERS HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS MORE when they restart coverage.

-> No on 17: Californians will pay more for car insurance.

Proposition 17’s penalties are currently illegal in California, but in states where insurance companies are allowed to surcharge drivers, the result is HIGHER PREMIUMS:

- Nevadans can pay 73% more.
- Texans, 84% more.
- Floridians, 227% more.

-> No on 17: It leads to more uninsured motorists, costing us all more.

Because of the recession, insurance experts predict almost 20% more uninsured motorists on the road. According to the California Department of Insurance, Prop 17’s financial penalty: “discourages [people] from buying insurance, which may add to the number of uninsured motorists and ultimately drives up the cost of the uninsured motorist coverage for every insured.”

MORE UNINSURED DRIVERS hurts the bottom line for taxpayers and the state.

-> No on Prop 17: It’s an insurance company bailout.

The San Francisco Chronicle reports that Mercury’s Prop 17 is “a controversial insurance measure” from a company that “engaged in practices that may be illegal, including deceptive pricing and discrimination against consumers such as active members of the military.”

State courts stopped Mercury from overcharging motorists in 2005. But Prop. 17 would legalize those surcharges. That’s why Mercury has already spent $3.5 million on 17—so it can increase profits at the expense of California’s middle class.

We shouldn’t give insurance companies more power to raise our rates, especially during a recession.

YES ON 17 ELIMINATES AN EXISTING SURCHARGE FOR CHANGING INSURANCE COMPANIES

Currently, if you’re a responsible driver who maintains insurance coverage, you could pay a surcharge of hundreds of dollars if you switch insurance companies because you lose your continuous coverage discount.

PROP 17 WILL SAVE DRIVERS AS MUCH AS $250

17 would allow drivers to take your continuous coverage discount with you if you change insurers, saving you hundreds of dollars a year and increasing competition and choice.

OPPONENTS WANT 80% OF DRIVERS TO CONTINUE TO PAY A SURCHARGE

Opponents of 17 want to continue penalizing the more than 80% of drivers who follow the law and maintain coverage. They are intentionally misleading voters. No one is worse off with Prop 17. It provides ADDITIONAL GRACE PERIODS AND PROTECTIONS YOU DON’T GET NOW.

- FACT: 17 ADDS protections for soldiers to maintain their continuous coverage discount if they cancel insurance when serving overseas or in another state. Currently, they lose their discount.
- FACT: 17 ADDS protections for middle class families that have lapses in coverage for job losses, illnesses, or other reasons during tough economic times. Currently, they lose their discount.
- FACT: 17 preserves strong consumer protection laws. Insurers will still be required to base rates primarily on driving safety record, miles driven annually and driving experience. The Department of Insurance must still review and approve ALL rate increases or decreases.
- FACT: 17 encourages more people to maintain insurance, not fewers!

The Peace and Freedom Party of California stands for democracy, cooperation, and sharing. We want to organize and educate the public to work together to meet human needs.

The party believes the role of government should be to make sure that everyone has jobs, housing, education, health care, a clean environment, and equal rights. We support marriage equality, immigration rights, organized labor, and universal single-payer health care. We oppose the current U.S. military actions in Iraq and Afghanistan. We favor sharply increasing taxes on the wealthiest Americans who are best able to pay, and reducing the tax burden on working people.

Our top priorities are:
1. Bring all troops home now.
2. Double the minimum wage.
3. One system of free, quality health care for all.

★ LIBERTARIAN PARTY ★

Libertarians are the only Party that won’t legislate your personal morality or economic equality. We are the only party free of the left-right gridlock of entrenched politicians.

- Let parents control tuition dollars so that schools improve through competition.
- Recognize marriage equality, as the Civil Marriage Protection Act would have done.
- Increase the number of healthcare options by tax incentives and reviewing regulations.
- Enable patients’ use of medical marijuana by enforcing Prop 215.
- Defend your right to keep and bear arms.
- Protect the environment with green pricing and congestion fees rather than bureaucratic regulations written by industry lobbyists.
- Join the nine other states that passed the Liberty Amendment, which sets a timetable for repealing the income tax, and restricts federal power to constitutional boundaries.
- Oppose ill-advised foreign interventionism.

Vote Libertarian for practical solutions based on principles of individual freedom, personal responsibility, voluntary cooperation, customer choice, and market incentives. Stand up for the Bill of Rights and limiting the federal government to its Constitutional role of protecting liberty and justice for all—on American soil. Vote Libertarian, and win a free country.

I am running for the U.S. Senate because, as a lawmaker and lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve, I take seriously the oath I have sworn to support and defend the Constitution of the United States; and, as a father, I am deeply concerned about the impact our soaring national debt will have on our children’s future. Please join Congressman Tom McClintock; U.S. Senator Jim DeMint; and the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association in supporting my campaign. I am not backed by the business-as-usual Establishment, but I do have the support of hard-working Californians. My conservative principles have led me to oppose: big government, higher taxes, and more regulations; massive Wall Street bailouts; wasteful Federal stimulus programs; government healthcare takeovers; amnesty; and cap-and-trade energy tax schemes. I support: the Constitution; lower taxes, smaller government, and less spending and debt; drilling for America’s oil and gas; modern nuclear power; more water for California; secure borders and applying rule of law in our immigration policies. Government’s purpose is, as the Founders wrote in the Declaration of Independence, to secure our “unalienable rights” to “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness”; not try to buy us happiness with billions in our immigration policies. Government’s purpose is, as the Founders wrote in the Declaration of Independence, to secure our “unalienable rights” to “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness”; not try to buy us happiness with billions in

When I worked for President Reagan, he asked Americans, “If not us, who? If not now, when?” Now we are the ones who must protect America’s greatness by reversing the dangerous economic course President Obama and Congress are steering. America is $14 trillion in debt, more than half the money owed to China and other foreign investors, putting America’s future in their hands, not ours. If we stopped borrowing today, it would take 300 years to repay what we owe. This staggering debt is immoral—dangerous to our national security and a shameful legacy for our children. As a conservative economist and business professor, I know the urgency of stopping this reckless spending and debt, and understand how it’s killing job growth, eroding pensions and threatening our freedom. Because of my fierce opposition to wasteful spending, the National Taxpayers Union Foundation gave me highest marks when I served in Congress, twice rating me “the most frugal” representative. When I served in the State Senate, the California Journal named me “most ethical,” “best problem solver” and “best overall Senator.” In 2005, California’s budget was balanced without gimmicks or new taxes when I was State Finance Director. Tom McClintock praised my work, calling me “clear, straight-forward and honest.” Now I have a specific plan for cutting over $750 billion from this year’s federal budget. Please review my plan and record at campbell.org. No one will fight harder to stop federal waste and debt, defend liberty and bring new life to America’s economy.

I started my business career as a secretary, earned my MBA and became the first and only woman to lead a Fortune 20 company. From that experience I understand the problems people face and what it takes to create jobs. Today our prosperity is threatened by Congress’ runaway federal spending and mushrooming federal deficit, which, unless reversed, will burden our children and grandchildren with overwhelming debt and stunt the growth of our economy for a generation. I’m a tough fiscal conservative, running for the U.S. Senate to ensure economic growth and opportunity for all Americans. That’s why I signed the no new taxes pledge and will fight to cut federal spending and reduce the deficit. It’s time for a political outsider like me who’s not tied to the old politics and culture of political payoffs to go to Washington and fight to reform our government. I’ll fight to ban all congressional earmarks and political pork that costs us, the taxpayers, so much. We are at war with terrorists who seek to destroy America and our way of life. Now, more than ever, California needs a U.S. Senator who knows firsthand how to keep America safe. My experience as a national security advisor to the State Department and Pentagon gives me a solid understanding of how we can keep America secure. I’ll work for a tougher U.S. policy in dealing with terrorists and oppose the Administration’s policy to try terrorists in civilian court. I’m Carly Fiorina. I’m asking for your vote.

As your Governor, I will ensure all pedophiles will leave the State or volunteer to live confined to Santa Rosa Island, at no cost to Californians, as they will have their own self-supporting village, away from children. I believe all life is precious and must be protected. My prayer and promise to you is to secure the safety of our children. I will lower taxes to bare bones so that Californians will have more money to spend. As Californians spend, businesses will flourish. In addition, I will eliminate some taxes altogether and cut government bureaucracy in half. I had my own corporation for 35 years and I know in depth what it means to have a job, expand business, and how taxes and regulations can keep a business from growing. I will encourage large corporations to do business in California by eliminating regulations and offering “no-tax” incentives. Those large corporations will need workers, which means jobs for Californians. My “Cal Patent Act” will encourage small businesses and entrepreneurs by providing protection of inventions created by “start-ups” and promoting manufacturing in our state. Entrepreneurs will be able to apply for subsidy start-up money to manufacture those newly invented products, thereby creating jobs. When elected, I’ll tri-fence our borders from Arizona to the Pacific Ocean. I have lived in California 55 years. I have no desire for monetary gain. I will make California a successful thriving state that its residents can again be proud of. Hughes4Governor.com

Angered by the mess in Sacramento? Then, join my crusade to clean it up. I am a conservative Republican business owner and state senator who is fighting to stop the excessive spending and corruption in Sacramento. To stop the spending addicts, I fought to tie politicians’ hands by enacting a strict cap on state spending and requiring a rainy day reserve. To save billions of dollars, I support efforts to secure the border and deport violent illegal immigrant prisoners back to jails in their home countries. I cut my own pay, and wrote the constitutional amendment you passed making pay raises for politicians illegal when the state has a budget deficit. I publicly pressured a politician not to waste tax dollars on new furniture and saved taxpayers millions of dollars. By exposing exorbitant salaries of high-ranking officials who misused tax dollars to fix up their mansions, I helped save millions more. I authored legislation to establish the Office of the Independent Auditor and require a comprehensive audit of state government. Fighting Sacramento’s big spenders has earned me some powerful enemies. It has also earned me a 100% rating from the California Taxpayers Association and honors as “Hero of the Taxpayer” from Americans for Tax Reform. As Lieutenant Governor, I’ll work to turn California’s economy around while continuing my fight to protect taxpayers against waste, fraud and corruption. My candidacy is endorsed by the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association and Congressman Tom McClintock, two names synonymous with fighting taxes and battling outrageous government overspending. Our next Lieutenant Governor must watch out for the taxpayer first. I will hold the Governor and Legislature accountable, speak out when they are wrong—regardless of what political party they belong to—and fight to protect you against any attempt to raise taxes and grow government. My background as an Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon has taught me to never overlook the details. I’ve brought that same attention to detail when exposing waste and overspending in the liberal majority’s state budget proposals. It has earned me the reputation of being one of the strongest voices in Sacramento against higher taxes and against overspending. In fact, I strongly opposed budgets that increased taxes and grossly overspent, because I believed we shouldn’t spend money that we simply didn’t have. It turns out that I was right. I will bring that same conservative, tax-fighting attitude to the job as your next Lieutenant Governor. Please join the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association and Congressman Tom McClintock in supporting me for Lieutenant Governor.

California’s government isn’t working, and families and small businesses are paying the price. It’s time to fix California. That’s why Damon Dunn is running for Secretary of State. Born to a 16 year-old single mother, and struggling through deep poverty, Damon graduated from Stanford University, played in the NFL, and became a successful small business owner. Through his work with the Latino Educational Attainment Initiative, the Make a Wish Foundation, Fighting Giants Ministry, St. Augustine Soup Kitchen, and the Cops-N-Kids programs, Damon has provided hope and assistance to communities across our state. After retiring from professional football, Damon started his own successful business. However, as a businessman Damon quickly learned that government is often a barrier to economic growth and new jobs. As Secretary of State, Damon will focus on two areas: 1) improving California’s business climate and 2) protecting ballot integrity as the chief elections officer. Businesses are leaving California and taking jobs to other states. The Secretary of State is in the unique position to meet with these businesses and learn what is causing them to leave. Damon will work to make the necessary changes in California law to keep jobs from leaving our state. In order to expand voter participation, Californians must have faith in the electoral process. Damon will work to pass the simple reform of requiring voter identification. People have to show identification to rent a movie; voters should be required to identify themselves when they vote. www.DamonDunn.com.

Years of reckless spending and irresponsible budgets have driven our state to near bankruptcy. The career politicians are out of touch and out of ideas. This election is our opportunity to fix California’s finances. Coming from a background in Business and Finance, I am appalled at the cavalier way our money is treated in Sacramento. As your new State Treasurer, I will Oppose Tax Increases and insist the legislature Balance the Budget, Stop Wasteful Spending, and get our fiscal house in order. As Chair of the Senate Ethics Committee, I’ve worked to restore accountability and integrity to state government. As Vice-Chair of the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee, I’ve strongly opposed every irresponsible state budget that has come out of the legislature, budgets that have put our state into a financial crisis. I’ve fought every attempt to raise taxes. My tough stand on taxes and the budget has earned me the trust and support of the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association and the National Tax Limitation Committee. My professional career includes serving as an Investment Finance Executive for seven years, Mayor of my city, and member of the Senate. I’m a founder of the California Women’s Leadership Association and have served on the Boards of the National Association of Women Business Owners and the American Cancer Society. As California Treasurer I will protect you, the taxpayer, not the Sacramento politicians and special interests. You can find out more at www.MimiWalters.com. I would be honored to receive your vote.

I’m District Attorney Steve Cooley. It’s time we had a professional prosecutor—not a politician—as our Attorney General. As Attorney General, I will challenge the status quo, crack down on government fraud, corruption and abuse of power while fighting to restore integrity and fiscal conservatism to Sacramento. As L.A. County’s Chief Prosecutor, I created the Public Integrity Division to prosecute crimes committed by politicians, government officials and corrupt lawyers. My office has prosecuted over 1,000 dangerous criminals under “Three Strikes and You’re Out” and obtained more death penalty convictions than any other district attorney in California. I created a Victim Impact Program to assure special protection and assistance for the most vulnerable—the elderly and victims of child and sexual abuse. I’m the only candidate for Attorney General with experience as both a frontline police officer and prosecutor who has personally put murderers, rapists, gang members and child molesters behind bars. I received national recognition for my leadership in bringing escaped killers back from Mexico who fled to escape justice—including the murderer of Deputy Sheriff David March. The California Narcotic Officers’ Association calls me the “toughest district attorney in California.” Former Republican Governors Pete Wilson and George Deukmejian, and law enforcement organizations representing thousands of police officers, support me. As your Attorney General, I will be the People’s Lawyer to make government more accountable to taxpayers and citizens while relentlessly fighting violent crime and aggressively prosecuting white collar criminals and government officials who betray our trust.

California’s Attorney General must protect our basic constitutional rights and freedoms. First is our fundamental right to be free from violent crime. Californians have passed tough laws like “Three Strikes” to guarantee that repeat, violent criminals are locked up for a long time, and that the rights of victims are held above those of criminals. I strongly support these laws and will oppose all efforts to water them down. When California’s District Attorneys needed advanced training for criminal prosecutors, they came to me as Dean of Chapman University Law School. We established programs to help improve their performance and put criminals away. Illegal immigrants are crowding our prisons, costing us billions. As Attorney General, I’ll challenge the federal government for its failure to control our borders, making it pay the bill for these prisoners. I will fight liberal, activist judges who have invented new “rights” for prisoners, causing the potential release of thousands of violent criminals from prison. I will also fight for taxpayers, small businesses and voters. I have defended taxpayers from illegal attempts to raise taxes and businesses from unconstitutional regulations. I’ll stand up for voters when they pass ballot initiatives. I’ve argued cases at the highest courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court. I’ve fought for the Boy Scouts, the Pledge of Allegiance, religious freedoms, property rights, and against eminent domain. For more about my positions, please visit www.EastmanForAG.com. I hope to earn your support. Together, we can “secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity.”

California’s “Three-Strikes-and-You’re-Out” law is under attack, which is one reason the authors of “Three Strikes”—Mike Reynolds and former Republican Secretary of State Bill Jones—are endorsing me for Attorney General. They know I am the only Republican candidate with a consistent public voting record supporting “Three Strikes” instead of opposing it. I’m also the only Republican candidate with a consistent voting record opposing the early release of felons back into our communities. Dumping prisoners into our communities before they have served their time is not a solution to our budget problems. Instead, we should eliminate the absurdly expensive health coverage California currently gives inmates. California prisoners receive better health care than most Californians. This will end on my watch as Attorney General. I have sponsored laws to keep hardened criminals behind bars, to streamline the Death Penalty and to protect crime victims and their families. As a young attorney, I began my legal career at the law firm of Lucas and Deukmejian. In my forty years of law, I’ve defended small business owners, sponsored death penalty legislation and helped prosecute violent crime. Above all else, I’ve fought to protect and defend our State Constitution. The Attorney General is the people’s lawyer and advocate; I will defend our laws and end politics as usual in this office. Let’s defend “Three Strikes”, put public safety first and take back our neighborhoods. Thank you and I respectfully ask for your vote.

Former Governor Pete Wilson said Mike Villines is “someone who can bring people together and solve problems” and former Governor George Deukmejian stated “he’s an experienced leader we need for these challenging times.” As our Insurance Commissioner, businessman Mike Villines has two main priorities . . . protecting consumers and re-building our economy. For example, he favors letting people carry their health insurance between jobs and making sure consumers have the peace of mind that their insurance will protect them. Mike Villines knows the insurance industry comprises one-tenth of California’s economy, so he’ll fight to streamline government regulations and create new jobs, not drive them to other states. Additionally, he believes insurance rates can be more affordable by promoting greater competition between insurance companies. A past Assembly Republican Leader, Mike Villines understands that insurance fraud costs Californians an average of $500 per resident . . . he’ll crack down on the fraud causing a staggering rise in insurance premiums. A fiscal conservative, Mike Villines will support cost containment measures that keep worker’s compensation rates low so we reduce the cost of doing business in California . . . no wonder Larry Higby, Chairman of New Majority California, said, “ . . . he understands that the key to job creation is a healthy business climate.” Happily married and the father of three children, Mike Villines will also push for common sense solutions that provide health coverage to those individuals with pre-existing conditions who find it difficult to get insurance. As a Jobs/Economy Specialist, it is my job to be the taxpayers’ watchdog, and to promote economic growth to create new jobs. My personal three-part pledge to you, the taxpayer, is that above all else I will always stand true to my fiscal conservative values. The second part of that pledge is that I will defend taxpayers and fight against government regulators who destroy jobs. Lastly, I will eliminate wasteful spending. I got to where I am the same way many of you did, through hard work and perseverance. I was born and raised in California. My parents worked in a local cannery and I worked in the fields and orchards to pay for my education. I went to medical school, became a physician and was a Major in the United States Army during Viet Nam. I served in the state legislature and coauthored the Workers’ Compensation Reform bill that saved jobs. Now I serve as a Jobs/Economy Specialist at the Board of Equalization where I am fighting every day on behalf of hard-pressed taxpayers. Yes, I am a Republican, but I am more than that. I am a conservative, dedicated to cutting wasteful government and defending taxpayers. I ask that you allow me the privilege of serving you, the taxpayer, on this important taxpayer board. Thank you and I appreciate your vote.

The Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association is supporting me because I have a passion for fighting against tax increases on California families and businesses. My extensive experience as a Taxpayer Advocate with a statewide taxpayer watchdog organization, as a businessman and as a state senator (who kept a no-tax pledge) uniquely qualifies me to protect the interests of you, the taxpayer. Politicians in Sacramento and Washington are killing job growth with regulation and red tape. They are worried that if I am elected to the Board I will challenge the status quo. They are right. That is exactly what I will do. Unlike most of the people in Sacramento, I welcome and support the Tea Party activities because it echoes what I have been saying for years: Government is too large. Unfortunately, liberals don’t understand this concept. My tax philosophy is simple: Do not overtax the People. When the People are excessively taxed their liberty is lost. I authored Jessica’s Law, which created the toughest sexual predator laws in the nation. We had to take Jessica’s Law to the ballot because the Legislature failed to act. I also created California’s Amber Alert, which has resulted in nearly 200 reunions of abducted children with their parents. Visit www.GeorgeRunner.com to learn more about my mission to change California and protect the taxpayers of our state.

Sick of politicians and taxes? That’s why I’m running for Board of Equalization—to protect taxpayers and defend the Constitution. As author of “Megan’s Law,” requiring public notification when sexual predators move into your neighborhood, I saved thousands of children from molestation. The ACLU said “No,” but we won! I’m proud to be an official proponent of Proposition 13, lowering property taxes. With rampant mismanagement and wasteful spenders in Sacramento, I will fight all tax increases. The BOE can do more damage to your wallet than the Legislature! As Board Member Bill Leonard’s Chief-Deputy and taxpayer advocate, I have effectively fought the abusive government bureaucracy, saving taxpayers millions of dollars. I’m a rock-solid, effective conservative who believes Californians are over-tax and under-served! National Tax Limitation Committee repeatedly named me “Taxfighter of the Year.” Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association’s Jon Coupal says, “We have great respect for Barbara and she has excellent conservative credentials.” California Taxpayers Committee: “You’re a great conservative and our best taxpayers’ advocate.” California Small Business Association: “You do a great job representing small business as the taxpayers’ best defender at BOE.” I’m endorsed by Republican clubs, volunteers, and taxpayer groups. Representing you is not a career, it’s a public service. You can reach me at barbara@barbaraalby.com. As a business owner, wife and mother I know how tough it is to make ends meet. I’ll never forget who I work for: you. I’d be honored to have your vote!

I’ve spent the last 25 years interpreting and applying Sales Tax laws as a tax auditor for the State Board of Equalization. My qualifications and experience make me your best choice for making this agency better for taxpayers. You deserve a representative who has expertise with Sales Tax laws and who will fight for common-sense reforms within the agency. Taxpayers who appeal their state tax liabilities will have confidence that decisions will be correct and fair. I would be honored to serve you on the State Board of Equalization.

Taxpayers should always come first! On the Board of Equalization, I’ve worked to protect taxpayers from overly aggressive state tax agencies. I’ve also fought for the cause of small business owners, and I opposed every attempt to raise taxes on hard working Californians. Over the past four years, I was able to defeat efforts to create a $500 million tax on digital Internet downloads—the so-called I-Tax. I also began auditing state government and discovered that the state had delayed the return of $42 million in tax deposits owed to more than 5,500 small businesses. My husband and I own a small business, and we worry about our children’s future, especially when businesses are leaving California every day because of high taxes and endless regulations. Now more than ever, our state must help small businesses by lowering taxes and reducing regulations. I’ll never forget watching my mother nearly three decades ago when, as a small business owner, she went before the Board of Equalization to contest an unfair tax bill. She was so frustrated that Board Members didn’t even listen as she told her story. In the end, she didn’t have the means to fight the massive state agency, and she ended up paying a tax bill she didn’t owe. No taxpayer should be treated like that. As long as I am on the Board of Equalization, I will be a strong advocate for taxpayers, ensuring their voice is heard. I would be honored to have your support. www.SteelforBOE.com.

Values—that's why I registered Green. I’ve served as your State Controller candidate twice, to “follow the money,” receiving the most California Green Party partisan votes ever: over 400,000. Now I’m running for Governor to “fix the money!” Hundreds of Greens, including over 50 elected mayors, city council, county council, and school board members are endorsing my campaign to spread the message: yes, California has problems, and yes, proven and innovative solutions exist. We can have a State Bank, to invest in California not Wall Street. We, our children, and grandchildren can preserve the good of Prop 13: keep people in their homes—and fix the bad: eliminate the two-thirds majority votes that safeguard only the richest of the rich. This is a great year to spread our message and build the Green Party. I’m asking for your support: www.LauraWells.org

California is the most dynamic state in the nation, and it’s been a great honor for me to be your Senator. During these very tough times for our state and country, I am doing everything I can to create jobs and make life better for you and your family. As Chair of the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee, I’ve helped create thousands of new jobs improving our roads and transit systems. Now I’m working to create even more jobs by expanding transportation priorities, helping small businesses thrive and making California the biggest job creator in the new clean energy economy. But our work is far from done. As I focus on getting our economy back on track, I am also working for affordable health care, better schools, and to protect our communities, our environment and our fundamental rights and freedoms. I am proud to be supported by police, firefighters, business leaders, workers, nurses and many others across California who know that I will always stand up for our families, no matter how difficult the challenge.

I’m running for Lieutenant Governor because it’s time for us to finally shake up Sacramento and reform state government. As Mayor and Supervisor of San Francisco I have a proven track record of tackling big problems that others ignore, offering bold ideas and delivering real results. That’s why our City is the first in America daring to provide quality health care for every single resident—regardless of pre-existing medical conditions. On public education, we are valuing our schools, students and teachers and raising our test scores. While others lay off teachers, we’re giving ours more resources to succeed. On the environment, we have the nation’s most aggressive local solar incentives, highest recycling rates and strongest green building standards. We’re investing in comprehensive job training and putting people back to work in the new green economy. Under the Jobs Now initiative, we’ve placed more than 2,000 people into jobs, generated $35 million in local wages and allowed local businesses to succeed during difficult times. And we’ve done it all with balanced budgets and sound fiscal policies that protect taxpayer dollars. I am fired up and ready to change state government. With great optimism and humility, I ask for your vote.

As a Ph.D. scientist rather than a career politician, I will bring needed analytical capabilities and new thinking to Sacramento. As the father of young children, I feel adamantly that schoolteachers’ jobs should not be sacrificed before seriously cutting government overhead. As a successful small business owner wearing many hats, I can fulfill the Lieutenant Governor’s limited responsibilities myself without the budgeted staff of 30, thereby saving California taxpayers $10 million over 4 years. Owing no favors from past political office, I will put the long term interests of all Californians before the short term interests of lobbyists while serving on the State Lands Commission and the Boards of California’s University Systems. I request your vote so that I can serve you independently without staff, setting a strong example of fiscal restraint.

I’m running for Lieutenant Governor because I believe I can help chart a new course for our state—one with good jobs, access to quality education, a cleaner environment and improved public safety. As a former schoolteacher and former businesswoman, I understand the critical link between education and jobs and our economy. That’s why the California Federation of Teachers supports my candidacy. As a Regent of the UC and Trustee of CSU, I will fight student fee increases. As a Councilwoman, I have protected public safety and made sure our first responders have the tools and resources they need to keep us from harm. That’s why the largest law enforcement organization in the state, the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC), representing over 62,000 peace officers across the state, and the California Professional Firefighters, have endorsed my candidacy. The Lieutenant Governor chairs the California Commission for Economic Development, and my commitment to providing jobs and supporting working men and women has earned me the endorsements of the Communications Workers of America and local affiliates of the Pipe Trades, Longshore and Ironworkers Unions. The National Organization for Women and the National Women’s Political Caucus, who are excited about electing the first woman Lieutenant Governor in California’s 160-year history, also have endorsed my candidacy. This campaign is about standing up for change. I have the experience, energy and determination to help chart a new course for California. I would be honored to have your vote as California’s next Lieutenant Governor.

Pedro Nava is a proven prosecutor and effective crime fighter. He was named “Outstanding Legislator” in 2008 and 2009 by the California State Sheriffs’ Association. Pedro Nava, a former Deputy District Attorney in Fresno and Santa Barbara counties, has the expertise and tenacity to keep violent criminals, hardened gang members, and drug kingpins off the street. As a local prosecutor, he led Targeted Narcotics Prosecution and the Asset Forfeiture program. He also protected consumers from criminal rip-off artists. Elected to the State Assembly in 2004, Pedro Nava has authored successful legislation to protect victims from violent sexual predators. He serves on the Domestic Violence Program Advisory Council where he leads state efforts to protect victims of domestic violence. Pedro Nava has also worked to protect Californians from natural disasters and terrorist attacks. Nava is Vice Chair of the Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Management, serves on the California Emergency Council, and has fought to streamline and strengthen California’s emergency preparedness and homeland security efforts. Pedro Nava, a former member of the California Coastal Commission, is spearheading the fight to prevent new offshore oil drilling in California. Pedro Nava will be an Attorney General who puts public safety first. He will protect our communities from violent criminals, toxic polluters, and banks and insurance companies that violate the public trust. Pedro Nava is strongly endorsed for Attorney General by frontline peace officers, deputy sheriffs, and police chiefs and sheriffs. Pedro Nava. A proven prosecutor for Attorney General. For the first time in our state’s history, the government spent more money on prisons than higher education. We need to reform prisons and recognize that education is the key to our future and public safety. Education is the best way to shut the revolving door of our prison system—where 70 percent of released inmates return after three years. I’m fighting to reform the prisons by requiring inmates to rehabilitate themselves through work, study or treatment before they are released. Education creates strong communities. That’s why I’m working to expand preschool in every neighborhood so kids start school ready to learn. And I’m leading the fight to lower college tuition by taking on big oil with an extraction fee that can’t be passed on to consumers. I’m the child of Latino and Asian immigrants who worked as janitors so I could be the first in my family to attend college. I went on to teach college courses to new citizens. I know the true spirit of California opportunity and optimism is nurtured in great schools, not failed prisons. I’ve earned the overwhelming support of law enforcement because they know with 60 percent of prisoners functionally illiterate—education is the best strategy to prevent crime and rehabilitate criminals. Please join seniors, California Professional Firefighters, the California Federation of Teachers and over 60,000 cops and deputy sheriffs who support me because they agree that the best way to protect public safety is to invest in education.

The first constitutional requirement and duty of the Attorney General is “to see that the laws of the state are uniformly and adequately enforced.” But California laws, including those related to jobs, education, health care, transportation, environment, housing and others, are not and cannot be enforced uniformly or adequately. California Supreme Court rules forbid the use or mention in future cases of 90% of appellate opinions, decisions ordered “not to be published”, even when they would exonerate us from criminal charges. Seven “unpublished opinions” invalidating $500 “red light camera tickets” aren’t protecting others. Different results arise from similar situations. Predictability, reliability and trust are destroyed, and lives devastated by arbitrary, random opinions. Our Supreme Court lobbied the Legislature and defeated several bills to return citizens’ rights to cite these opinions, even though the United States Supreme Court restored these rights in federal courts, and most states followed. Your right to free speech is severely limited by this misuse of power. Two California Supreme Court justices are running now for re-election to twelve year terms. We voters need to ask them why we are not allowed to use all opinions and rulings as precedent or examples in future cases? Why won’t they return our historical right to exonerate and defend ourselves? Without this freedom, there can be no real reform of our courts, criminal justice system, legal processes, and financial markets that our society desperately needs. I will work to see that all laws are uniformly and adequately enforced. See: www.NonPublication.com

I am running for Attorney General because I believe California, despite its challenges, is still the best state in the best country the world has ever seen. My parents immigrated to America and we lived in the basement of a stranger's house. We sold gifts at flea markets to make ends meet. After several years, we scraped up enough money to open our own gift store. After several more years we expanded to six stores. Through hard work and perseverance, my parents achieved the American Dream. My parents’ sacrifices took us from poverty to the middle-class, and gave my brother and me an amazing education: Stanford University and Georgetown Law. I joined the United States Air Force on active duty to give back to this country that has given so much to us. I continue to serve in the reserves as a Judge Advocate General and Prosecutor. As Attorney General, I will ensure all Californians have the opportunity to achieve the American Dream, regardless of gender, age, race, sexual orientation, or social-economic status—and to do so safely and securely. In my many years of public service, I have consistently stood up to powerful interests on behalf of the people of California. Fighting the good fight, improving our economy, and keeping people safe are what get me up every morning. Along with my wonderful wife Betty, a former Deputy Attorney General, and our two rambunctious sons, I humbly ask for your vote.

Personal experience taught me what it’s like to deal with health insurance companies. I’m running for Insurance Commissioner to make sure what happened to my family won’t happen to yours. When a rare infection put my 5-month old daughter on an intensive care respirator, my wife and I had to fight the health insurance company, while our baby fought for her life. Against our doctor’s wishes, they transferred her to another hospital in rush hour traffic, hooked-up to the respirator. Ignoring our doctor again, they sent her home with a feeding tube. As Insurance Commissioner, I’ll make sure Californians get the healthcare we pay for. When I found out insurance companies were taking away coverage after people got sick, I stood up to their lobbyists, writing a bill to stop them. I will protect doctor patient relationships—preventing insurance company bureaucrats from making medical decisions. I will work to stop insurers from denying coverage based on pre-existing conditions. I will protect senior citizens from rip-offs by life insurance and annuity companies. I can stand up to special interests because I refuse contributions from insurance companies. I am a proven fighter—even after my colleague was shot in the head, I led the recall of corrupt officials in my Southern California hometown and helped put their leader behind bars. I am proud to be endorsed by California's doctors, firefighters, police and small businesses. I ask for your vote, so I can stand up to heartless insurance companies for all of us.

We need an Insurance Commissioner with the courage, integrity and independence to take on the insurance companies and fight to protect consumers. We need Dave Jones. The Consumer Federation of California named Dave Jones the legislature’s “Consumer Champion.” Dave Jones will fight to hold insurance companies accountable. Assemblymember Dave Jones has passed over 70 bills demonstrating his commitment to children and families, affordable housing, education, consumer and environmental protection, healthcare, privacy rights, workers’ rights, civil rights, equal access to the courts, and economic development. Dave Jones is leading the fight to stop discrimination by insurance companies and to regulate health insurance premium increases. Dave Jones passed crucial legislation to prevent dependent seniors from being ripped-off by abusive conservators. Dave Jones secured over $2.4 billion annually in new funding to provide healthcare for California families. In fact, Dave Jones was honored as California’s “Most Effective Legislator” by the Capitol Weekly. Before his election to the Assembly, Dave Jones worked as a legal aid lawyer, providing free representation to seniors, low income families, tenants and consumers. In 1995, Dave Jones was one of only 13 Americans selected as a White House Fellow, where he served in the Clinton Administration as a Counsel to Attorney General Janet Reno. As a candidate for Insurance Commissioner, Dave Jones refuses to accept contributions from insurance companies. He will have the independence to put consumers first. Dave Jones fights for us. Vote for Democrat Dave Jones for Insurance Commissioner. For more information: www.davejones2010.com
I am proud to be serving the interests of the residents of my district by helping to create jobs and revitalize our state’s economy at this difficult time for all of us. As a child of immigrant parents who started and operated for over 30 years a small business laundry in my native San Francisco, I vividly remember the difficulties my parents faced to keep this business running during good and bad economic times. Working families have never had it tougher than right now, and they need the help of government to create jobs and to get our economy back on track. Providing free taxpayer services and assistance, ensuring fair and open hearings for taxpayers who are appealing State tax determinations, and protecting the State’s revenues to ensure they are spent wisely remain my top priorities as a member of the Board. I have over 25 years of experience in making state government work for hard-working Californians, and we have much more that must be accomplished during these tough times. Californians deserve the best, most efficient service from their government. My experience in making wise decisions with your tax dollars, my strong sense of fairness for everyone in how to interpret and apply California’s tax laws, and my unblemished track record of integrity make me your best choice to continue my service and leadership on the Board. I would be honored to have the privilege of continuing to represent and serve you on the Board of Equalization.

My name is Chris Parker. I’m running for the Board of Equalization because I want our economy moving again. Professional politicians spend too much time fighting each other rather than solving the problems facing California’s families and seniors. A struggling economy, job losses, and the housing market collapse have all contributed to a statewide financial crisis. Now, more than ever, we need experienced leaders with fiscal expertise to get California back on track. As a seasoned tax expert, I bring a breadth of experience in catching cheaters and rooting out fraud and abuse that costs our state billions in lost revenue. I have delivered millions of dollars in uncollected taxes back to the state to help pay for education, public safety and other vital services. My work has been recognized by business leaders, teachers, farmers, seniors, firefighters, government reformers and nurses who have called me an innovative problem solver who can cut through red tape, reduce government waste, and save taxpayers’ money while continuing the work to make our tax system more efficient and fair. On the Board, I’ll give small businesses the tools they need to succeed, attract 21st century industries that will generate good middle class jobs, and help create a highly skilled, well educated workforce; I’ll hold accountable those who try to cheat California of tax revenue. Please visit www.ParkerforBOE.com to learn more about my experience. My name is Chris Parker and I’m a problem solver, not a politician. I would be honored to earn your support.

Jerome E. Horton, Vice Chairperson of the California State Board of Equalization, has twenty-two years of Board of Equalization experience protecting the rights of California taxpayers and fighting for fairness and equity in government. Jerome’s background in accounting, finance, and real-estate and business tax law has enhanced the Board of Equalization’s reputation as one of California’s most productive, responsive, and efficient governmental agencies, generating over $53 billion for schools, public safety, and other vital services. Recently, Jerome expanded the Joint Enforcement Criminal Task Force and initiated other programs credited with prosecuting illegal businesses who cheat California taxpayers. He launched an anti-human trafficking initiative to help eradicate the moral and financial abuse of workers. Jerome also played an important role in establishing the Board of Equalization’s “Taxpayers Bill of Rights” making government more accountable to California taxpayers. His programs have recaptured millions of dollars for public services, protected California jobs, and helped eliminate inequities in tax administration. As a former California Medical Assistance Commissioner, Legislator, and member of the California Work Force Investment Board, United Job Creation Council, and the Cultural Endowment Board, Jerome is known as a pragmatic problem solver who cares about the people he serves. As a husband, parent, and grandfather, Jerome remains confident that we can build the coalitions, to find solutions, and meet the challenges of the future. Please vote for Jerome E. Horton, Member State Board of Equalization, who has the demonstrated experience, skill, and proven ability to achieve positive results. Thank you!

Withdraw all troops from Iraq and Afghanistan now. Provide free health care for everyone. Regulate corporations and expand public transportation to protect the environment. Let’s decide what we need and use our country’s wealth to pay for it. Register Peace and Freedom before May 24. Vote Feinland for Senate June 8.

Bailout working people—not banks. Fund human needs—not war!

Proposition 14 limits your choices. No independent, third party, or write-in candidates. Vote No on Proposition 14.

Teaching has been my life—and my passion—for the past 37 years. As a classroom teacher, coach, legislator and parent, I know our policies must be based on a simple question: What is in the best interest of our children? Not bureaucrats and not politicians. It’s time we had a teacher who will put children first and fundamentally reform our schools. First, I will demand real accountability through a comprehensive fiscal and performance audit to cut waste and mismanagement and put those savings into new textbooks and computers. Second, I’ll make sure all our neighborhood schools are safe and expand after school, job training and mentorship programs. I’m proud to have received the endorsement of virtually every major public safety organization in California including the California Professional Firefighters along with local classroom teachers. Third, we need involved parents to support teaching that character counts while promoting trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, caring and good citizenship. Fourth, I’ll expand career technical education for high school students. Finally, I’ll make the health and fitness of students a top priority. As Chair and Founder of the California Task Force on Youth and Workplace Wellness, I led the effort to ban junk food from school campuses and expand physical education requirements. We can do this. We must do this. Our kids only get one chance at a good education. As a teacher, I have the experience, energy and ideas to transform our schools. Let’s do this together. I’d be honored to earn your support.

It’s time to do something different in California politics and education. First, reject the idea that the candidate who raises the most money is best suited to win the election. Then, elect an honored, active, experienced classroom teacher the next State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Help all our children, teachers and schools. Cast your vote to elect Grant McMicken.

Gloria Romero—an Education Professor and State Senator—has been called “the most prominent advocate of education reform in the Legislature” by the San Jose Mercury-News. She led the fight to give parents real choices over which schools their children attend. Schools are in crisis. We owe it to our children to transform them. California leads the nation in dropout rates and has fallen behind in educating children for college and quality jobs. We need to elect Gloria Romero as Superintendent of Public Instruction because she has the courage to put the needs of children ahead of the giant bureaucracy and special interests who’ve run the education system for too long. Gloria Romero wrote the new law requiring failing schools to restructure, fire ineffective administrators, revise curriculum, reopen as public charter schools, and allow parents to move their children to better performing schools. Gloria will fight for safer schools, renewed emphasis on the basics, including reading, writing and arithmetic—and smaller class sizes so children get more individual attention. She’ll prepare students for the changing economy by improving career technical education/training. Professor Gloria Romero trains the teachers of the future. She understands what skills need improvement so that teachers and schools are ready to meet the challenge. Gloria will fight for more resources for classrooms. But she won’t allow tax dollars to be wasted on bureaucracy like usual. She’ll be our voice in demanding change and a quality education system we can support. www.GloriaRomero.org

Thirty years ago California led the nation in education standards, but today our state ranks near the bottom in almost every category. Professional politicians have failed, putting our children’s futures at risk. Lydia A. Gutiérrez’s experience in education, local government, and as an aerospace administrator gives Lydia a unique perspective to help our schools provide high quality education for our children. Lydia's experience: 20+ years as a Public School Teacher in California, Master Teacher for UCLA Mathematics Project X, Administrator for 6 years in aerospace industry, Elected Official of Coastal San Pedro Neighborhood Council, Budget and Finance Committee Chair, Public Safety Committee Vice Chair. Lydia’s pledge: Make vocational training an alternative career path to college. Guarantee our tax dollars are effectively used to educate our children. Protect our schools from gangs and sexual predators. Ensure students graduate able to read, write, and speak English. Prioritize reading, math, science and other core academic courses with highly qualified teachers and extended classroom time. Affirm accuracy in textbooks in all content areas including our Founding Fathers, the Constitution and the sovereignty of the United States of America. Secure an active role for parents in decision making over their child’s academic success. Children First! Lydia A. As a classroom teacher, I witnessed the impact of crowded classes and a lack of resources on my students. As a school principal, I worked with teachers and parents to improve our classrooms. As a school superintendent, I worked to improve instruction for all students in our district. We expanded preschool programs, set up free medical and dental clinics, started parent training and community centers, and established gang prevention training. I implemented programs to reduce class size and expanded arts, music and technology. During my 15 years as superintendent, I balanced a $70 million budget on time, managed hundreds of teachers and staff and improved accountability in all schools. I was honored to be named “Superintendent of the Year.” I’m not a career politician, but a school superintendent with over 30 years of educational experience in California’s public schools. I’m running to bring common sense back into our state’s broken educational system. It is time to take politics out of our schools! Let’s cut the red-tape and let our teachers do the job they are trained to do. I would be honored to have your vote.

This amendment proposed by Senate Constitutional Amendment 4 of the 2007–2008 Regular Session (Resolution Chapter 115, Statutes of 2008) expressly amends the California Constitution by amending a section thereof; therefore, existing provisions proposed to be deleted are printed in strikeout type and new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 2 OF ARTICLE XIII A

SEC. 2. (a) The “full cash value” means the county assessor’s valuation of real property as shown on the 1975–76 tax bill under “full cash value” or, thereafter, the appraised value of real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred after the 1975 assessment. All real property not already assessed up to the 1975–76 full cash value may be reassessed to reflect that valuation. For purposes of this section, “newly constructed” does not include real property that is reconstructed after a disaster, as declared by the Governor, where the fair market value of the real property, as reconstructed, is comparable to its fair market value prior to the disaster. Also for purposes of this section, the term “newly constructed” does not include the that portion of an existing structure that consists of the construction or reconstruction or improvement to a structure, constructed of unreinforced masonry bearing wall construction, necessary to comply with any local ordinance relating to seismic safety during the first 15 years following that reconstruction or improvement of seismic retrofitting components, as defined by the Legislature.

However, the Legislature may provide that, under appropriate circumstances and pursuant to definitions and procedures established by the Legislature, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property that is eligible for the homeowner’s exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII and any implementing legislation may transfer the base year value of the property entitled to exemption, with the adjustments authorized by subdivision (b), to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value located within the same county and purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale of the original property. For purposes of this section, “any person over the age of 55 years” includes a married couple one member of which is over the age of 55 years. For purposes of this section, “replacement dwelling” means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, and any land on which it may be situated. For purposes of this section, a two-dwelling unit shall be considered as two separate single-family dwellings. This paragraph shall apply to any replacement dwelling that was purchased or newly constructed on or after November 9, 1988.

In addition, the Legislature may authorize each county board of supervisors, after consultation with the local affected agencies within the county’s boundaries, to adopt an ordinance making the provisions of this subdivision relating to transfer of base year value also applicable to situations in which the replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this State. For purposes of this paragraph, “local affected agency” means any city, special district, school district, or community college district that receives an annual property tax revenue allocation. This paragraph shall apply applies to any replacement dwelling that was purchased or newly constructed on or after the date the county adopted the provisions of this subdivision relating to transfer of base year value, but shall does not apply to any replacement dwelling that was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

The Legislature may extend the provisions of this subdivision relating to the transfer of base year values from original properties to replacement dwellings of homeowners over the age of 55 years to severely disabled homeowners, but only with respect to those replacement dwellings purchased or newly constructed on or after the effective date of this paragraph.

(b) The full cash value base may reflect from year to year the inflationary rate not to exceed 2 percent for any given year or reduction as shown in the consumer price index or comparable data for the area under taxing jurisdiction, or may be reduced to reflect substantial damage, destruction, or other factors causing a decline in value.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), the Legislature may provide that the term “newly constructed” does not include any of the following:

1. The construction or addition of any active solar energy system.
2. The construction or installation of any fire sprinkler system, other fire extinguishing system, fire detection system, or fire-related egress improvement, as defined by the Legislature, that is constructed or installed after the effective date of this paragraph.
3. The construction, installation, or modification on or after the effective date of this paragraph of any portion or structural component of a single- or multiple-family dwelling that is eligible for the homeowner’s exemption if the construction, installation, or modification is for the purpose of making the dwelling more accessible to a severely disabled person.
4. The construction or installation of seismic retrofitting improvements or improvements utilizing earthquake hazard mitigation technologies, that are constructed or installed in existing buildings after the effective date of this paragraph. The Legislature shall define eligible improvements. This exclusion does not apply to seismic safety reconstruction or improvements that qualify for exclusion pursuant to the last sentence of the first paragraph of subdivision (a):

(5) The construction, installation, removal, or modification on or after the effective date of this paragraph of any portion or structural component of an existing building or structure if the construction, installation, removal, or modification is for the purpose of making the building more accessible to, or more usable by, a disabled person.

(d) For purposes of this section, the term “change in ownership” does not include the acquisition of real property as a replacement for comparable property if the person acquiring the real property has been displaced from the property replaced by eminent domain proceedings, by acquisition by a public entity, or governmental action that has resulted in a judgment of inverse condemnation. The real property acquired shall be deemed comparable to the property replaced if it is similar in size, utility, and function, or if it conforms to state regulations defined by the Legislature governing the relocation of persons displaced by governmental actions.

The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to any property acquired after March 1, 1975, but shall affect only those assessments of that property that occur after the provisions of this subdivision take effect.

(e) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Legislature shall provide that the base year value of property that is substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster, as declared by the Governor, may be transferred to comparable property within the same county that is acquired or newly constructed as a replacement for the substantially damaged or destroyed property.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), this subdivision applies to any comparable replacement property acquired or newly constructed on or after July 1, 1985, and to the determination of base year values for the 1985–86 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

(3) In addition to the transfer of base year value of property within the same county that is permitted by paragraph (1), the Legislature may authorize each county board of supervisors to adopt, after consultation with affected local agencies within the county, an ordinance allowing the transfer of the base year value of property that is located within another county in the State and is substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster, as declared by the Governor, to comparable replacement property of equal or lesser value that is located within the adopting county and is acquired or newly constructed within three years of the substantial damage or destruction of the original property as a replacement for that property. The scope and amount of the benefit provided to a property owner by the transfer of base year value of property pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed the scope and amount of the benefit provided to a property owner by the transfer of base year value of property pursuant to subdivision (a). For purposes of this paragraph, “affected local agency” means any city, special district, school district, or community college district that receives an annual allocation of ad valorem property tax revenues. This paragraph shall apply to any comparable replacement property that is acquired or newly constructed as a replacement for property substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster, as declared by the Governor, occurring on or after October 20, 1991, and to the determination of base year values for the 1991–92 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

(f) For the purposes of subdivision (e):

(1) Property is substantially damaged or destroyed if it sustains physical damage amounting to more than 50 percent of its value immediately before the disaster. Damage includes a diminution in the value of property as a result of restricted access caused by the disaster.

(2) Replacement property is comparable to the property substantially damaged or destroyed if it is similar in size, utility, and function to the property that it replaces, and if the fair market value of the acquired property is comparable to the fair market value of the replaced property prior to the disaster.

(g) For purposes of subdivision (a), the terms “purchased” and “change in ownership” do not include the purchase or transfer of real property between spouses since March 1, 1975, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Transfers to a trustee for the beneficial use of a spouse, or the surviving spouse of a deceased transferor, or by a trustee of such a trust to the spouse of the trustor.

(2) Transfers to a spouse or former spouse in connection with a property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution of a marriage or legal separation.

(3) Transfers to a spouse or former spouse in connection with a property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution of a marriage or legal separation.

(4) The creation, transfer, or termination, solely between spouses, of any coowner’s interest.

(5) The distribution of a legal entity’s property to a spouse or former spouse in exchange for the interest of the spouse in the legal entity in connection with a property settlement agreement or a decree of dissolution of a marriage or legal separation.

(h) (1) For purposes of subdivision (a), the terms “purchased” and “change in ownership” do not include the purchase or transfer of the principal residence of the transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children, as defined by the Legislature, and the purchase or transfer of the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) of the full cash value of all other real property between parents and their children, as defined by the Legislature. This subdivision shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree.
(2) (A) Subject to subparagraph (B), commencing with purchases or transfers that occur on or after the date upon which the measure adding this paragraph becomes effective, the exclusion established by paragraph (1) also applies to a purchase or transfer of real property between grandparents and their grandchild or grandchildren, as defined by the Legislature, that otherwise qualifies under paragraph (1), if all of the parents of that grandchild or those grandchildren, who qualify as the children of the grandparents, are deceased as of the date of the purchase or transfer.

(B) A purchase or transfer of a principal residence shall not be excluded pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the transferee grandchild or grandchildren also received a principal residence, or interest therein, through another purchase or transfer that was excludable pursuant to paragraph (1). The full cash value of any real property, other than a principal residence, that was transferred to the grandchild or grandchildren pursuant to a purchase or transfer that was excludable pursuant to paragraph (1), and the full cash value of a principal residence that fails to qualify for exclusion as a result of the preceding sentence, shall be included in applying, for purposes of subparagraph (A), the one million dollar one-million-dollar ($1,000,000) full cash value limit specified in paragraph (1).

(i) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Legislature shall provide with respect to a qualified contaminated property, as defined in paragraph (2), that either, but not both, of the following shall apply:

(A) (i) Subject to the limitation of clause (ii), the base year value of the qualified contaminated property, as adjusted as authorized by subdivision (b), may be transferred to a replacement property that is acquired or newly constructed as a replacement for the qualified contaminated property, if the replacement real property has a fair market value that is equal to or less than the fair market value of the qualified contaminated property if that property were not contaminated and, except as otherwise provided by this clause, is located within the same county. The base year value of the qualified contaminated property may be transferred to a replacement real property located within another county if the board of supervisors of that other county has, after consultation with the affected local agencies within that county, adopted a resolution authorizing an intercounty transfer of base year value as so described.

(ii) This subparagraph applies only to replacement property that is acquired or newly constructed within five years after ownership in the qualified contaminated property is sold or otherwise transferred.

(B) In the case in which the remediation of the environmental problems on the qualified contaminated property requires the destruction of, or results in substantial damage to, a structure located on that property, the term “new construction” does not include the repair of a substantially damaged structure, or the construction of a structure replacing a destroyed structure on the qualified contaminated property, performed after the remediation of the environmental problems on that property, provided that the repaired or replacement structure is similar in size, utility, and function to the original structure.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, “qualified contaminated property” means residential or nonresidential real property that is all of the following:

(A) In the case of residential real property, rendered uninhabitable, in the case of nonresidential real property, rendered unusable, as the result of either environmental problems, in the nature of and including, but not limited to, the presence of toxic or hazardous materials, or the remediation of those environmental problems, except where the existence of the environmental problems was known to the owner, or to a related individual or entity as described in paragraph (3), at the time the real property was acquired or constructed. For purposes of this subparagraph, residential real property is “uninhabitable” if that property, as a result of health hazards caused by or associated with the environmental problems, is unfit for human habitation, and nonresidential real property is “unusable” if that property, as a result of health hazards caused by or associated with the environmental problems, is unhealthy and unsuitable for occupancy.

(B) Located on a site that has been designated as a toxic or environmental hazard or as an environmental cleanup site by an agency of the State of California or the federal government.

(C) Real property that contains a structure or structures thereon prior to the completion of environmental cleanup activities, and that structure or structures are substantially damaged or destroyed as a result of those environmental cleanup activities.

(D) Stipulated by the lead governmental agency, with respect to the environmental problems or environmental cleanup of the real property, not to have been rendered uninhabitable or unusable, as applicable, as described in subparagraph (A), by any act or omission in which an owner of that real property participated or acquiesced.

(3) It shall be rebuttably presumed that an owner of the real property participated or acquiesced in any act or omission that rendered the real property uninhabitable or unusable, as applicable, if that owner is related to any individual or entity that committed that act or omission in any of the following ways:

(A) Is a spouse, parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, or sibling of that individual.

(B) Is a corporate parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of that entity.

(C) Is an owner of, or has control of, that entity.

(D) Is owned or controlled by that entity.

If this presumption is not overcome, the owner shall not receive the relief provided for in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1). The presumption may be overcome by presentation of satisfactory evidence to the assessor, who shall not be bound by the findings of the lead governmental agency in determining whether the presumption has been overcome.

(4) This subdivision applies only to replacement property that is acquired or constructed on or after January 1, 1995, and to property repairs performed on or after that date.

(j) Unless specifically provided otherwise, amendments to this section adopted prior to November 1, 1988, shall be are effective for changes in ownership that occur, and new construction that is completed, after the effective date of the amendment. Unless specifically provided otherwise, amendments to this section adopted after November 1, 1988, shall be are effective for changes in ownership that occur, and new construction that is completed, on or after the effective date of the amendment.

PROPOSITION 14

This amendment proposed by Senate Constitutional Amendment 4 of the 2009–2010 Regular Session (Resolution Chapter 2, Statutes of 2009) expressly amends the California Constitution by amending sections thereof; therefore, existing provisions proposed to be deleted are printed in strikeout type and new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

First—This measure shall be known and may be cited as the “Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act.”

Second—The People of the State of California hereby find and declare all of the following:

(a) Purpose. The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act is hereby adopted by the People of California to protect and preserve the right of every Californian to vote for the candidate of his or her choice. This act, along with legislation already enacted by the Legislature to implement this act, are intended to implement an open primary system in California as set forth below.

(b) Top Two Candidate Open Primary. All registered voters otherwise qualified to vote shall be guaranteed the unrestricted right to vote for the candidate of their choice in all state and congressional elections. All candidates for a given state or congressional office shall be listed on a single primary ballot. The top two candidates, as determined by the voters in an open primary, shall advance to a general election in which the winner shall be the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes cast in an open general election.

(c) Open Voter Registration. At the time they register, all voters shall have the freedom to choose whether or not to disclose their party preference. No voter shall be denied the right to vote for the candidate of his or her choice in either a primary or a general election for statewide constitutional office, the State Legislature, or the Congress of the United States based upon his or her disclosure or nondisclosure of party preference. Existing voter registrations, which specify a political party affiliation, shall be deemed to have disclosed that party as the voter’s political party preference unless a new affidavit of registration is filed.

(d) Open Candidate Disclosure. At the time they file to run for public office, all candidates shall have the choice to declare a party preference. The preference chosen shall accompany the candidate’s name on both the primary and general election ballots. The names of candidates who choose not to declare a party preference shall be accompanied by the designation “No Party Preference” on both the primary and general election ballots. Selection of a party preference by a candidate for state or congressional office shall not constitute or imply endorsement of the candidate by the party designated, and no candidate for that office shall be deemed the official candidate of any party by virtue of his or her selection in the primary.

(e) Freedom of Political Parties. Nothing in this act shall restrict the right of individuals to join or organize into political parties or in any way restrict the right of private association of political parties. Nothing in this measure shall restrict the parties’ right to contribute to, endorse, or otherwise support a candidate for state elective or congressional office. Political parties may establish such procedures as they see fit to endorse or support candidates or otherwise participate in all elections, and they may informally “nominate” candidates for election to voter-nominated offices at a party convention or by whatever lawful mechanism they so choose, other than at state-conducted primary elections. Political parties may also adopt such rules as they see fit for the selection of party officials (including central committee members, presidential electors, and party officers). This may include restricting participation in elections for party officials to those who disclose a party preference for that party at the time of registration.

(f) Presidential Primaries. This act makes no change in current law as it relates to presidential primaries. This act conforms to the ruling of the United States Supreme Court in Washington State Grange v. Washington State Republican Party (2008) 128 S.Ct. 1184. Each political party retains the right either to close its presidential primaries to those voters who disclose their party preference for that party at the time of registration or to open its presidential primary to include those voters who register without disclosing a political party preference.

Third—That Section 5 of Article II thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 5. (a) A voter-nomination primary election shall be conducted to select the candidates for congressional and state elective offices in California. All voters may vote at a voter-nominated primary election for any candidate for congressional and state elective office without regard to the political party preference disclosed by the candidate or the voter, provided that the voter is otherwise qualified to vote for candidates for the office in question. The candidates who are the top two vote-getters at a voter-nominated primary election for a congressional or state elective office shall, regardless of party preference, compete in the ensuing general election.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by Section 6, a candidate for a congressional or state elective office may have his or her political party preference, or lack of political party preference, indicated upon the ballot for the office in the manner provided by statute. A political party or party central committee shall not nominate a candidate for any congressional or state elective office at the voter-nominated primary. This subdivision shall not be interpreted to prohibit a political party or party central committee from endorsing, supporting, or opposing any candidate for a congressional or state elective office. A political party or party central committee shall not have the right to have its preferred candidate participate in the general election for a voter-nominated office other than a candidate who is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election, as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) The Legislature shall provide for primary partisan elections for partisan offices, presidential candidates, and political party and party central committees, including an open presidential primary whereby the candidates on the ballot are those found by the Secretary of State to be recognized candidates throughout the nation or throughout California for the office of President of the United States, and those whose names are placed on the ballot by petition, but excluding any candidate who has withdrawn by filing an affidavit of noncandidacy.

(d) A political party that participated in a primary election for a partisan office pursuant to subdivision (c) has the right to have its preferred candidate participate in the general election for that office and shall not be denied the ability to place on the general election ballot the candidate who received, at the primary election, the highest vote among that party’s candidates.

Fourth—That Section 6 of Article II thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 6. (a) All judicial, school, county, and city offices, including the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall be nonpartisan.

(b) No political party or party central committee may endorse, support, or oppose shall not nominate a candidate for nonpartisan office, and the candidate’s party preference shall not be included on the ballot for the nonpartisan office.

Fifth—This measure shall become operative on January 1, 2011.

PROPOSITION 15

This law proposed by Assembly Bill 583 (Statutes of 2008, Chapter 735) is submitted to the people in accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section 10 of the California Constitution.

This proposed law adds sections to the Elections Code; adds and repeals sections of the Government Code; and adds and repeals sections of the Revenue and Taxation Code; therefore, provisions proposed to be deleted are printed in strikeout type and new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 20600) is added to Division 20 of the Elections Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. FAIR ELECTIONS FUND

20600. (a) Each lobbying firm, as defined by Section 82038.5 of the Government Code, each lobbyist, as defined by Section 82039 of the Government Code, and each lobbyist employer, as defined by Section 82039.5 of the Government Code, shall pay the Secretary of State a nonrefundable fee of seven hundred dollars ($700) every two years. Twenty-five dollars ($25) of each fee from each lobbyist shall be deposited in the General Fund and used, when appropriated, for the purposes of Article 1 (commencing with Section 86100) of Chapter 6 of Title 9 of the Government Code. The remaining amount of each fee shall be deposited in the Fair Elections Fund established pursuant to Section 91133 of the Government Code. The fees in this section may be paid in even-numbered years when registrations are renewed pursuant to Section 86106 of the Government Code.

(b) The Secretary of State shall biennially adjust the amount of the fees collected pursuant to this section to reflect any increase or decrease in the Consumer Price Index.

SEC. 2. Section 85300 of the Government Code is repealed.

85300. No public officer shall expend and no candidate shall accept any public moneys for the purpose of seeking elective office.

SEC. 3. Section 86102 of the Government Code is repealed.

86102. Each lobbying firm and lobbyist employer required to file a registration statement under this chapter shall be charged not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) per year for each lobbyist required to be listed on its registration statement.

SEC. 4. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 91015) is added to Title 9 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12. CALIFORNIA FAIR ELECTIONS ACT OF 2008

Article 1. General

91015. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Fair Elections Act of 2008.

91017. The people find and declare all of the following:
(a) The current campaign finance system burdens candidates with the incessant rigors of fundraising and thus decreases the time available to carry out their public responsibilities.

(b) The current campaign finance system diminishes the free speech rights of nonwealthy voters and candidates whose voices are drowned out by those who can afford to monopolize the arena of paid political communications.

(c) The current campaign finance system fuels the public perception of corruption at worst and conflict of interest at best and undermines public confidence in the democratic process and democratic institutions.

(d) Existing term limits place a greater demand on fundraising for the next election even for elected officials in safe seats.

(e) The current campaign finance system undermines the First Amendment right of voters and candidates to be heard in the political process, undermines the First Amendment right of voters to hear all candidates’ speech, and undermines the core First Amendment value of open and robust debate in the political process.

(f) Citizens want to ensure the integrity of California’s system of electronically reporting lobbyist contributions and the integrity of future Secretaries of State to administer lobbyist disclosure programs. Voters would like the opportunity to elect a Secretary of State who has not accepted any contributions from entities or individuals that employ lobbyists.

(g) In states where the fair elections full public financing laws have been enacted and used, election results show that more individuals, especially women and minorities, run as candidates and growth in overall campaign costs diminish.

91019. The people enact this chapter to establish a Fair Elections pilot program in campaigns for the office of Secretary of State to accomplish the following purposes:

(a) To reduce the perception of influence of large contributions on the decisions made by state government.

(b) To remove wealth as a major factor affecting whether an individual chooses to become a candidate.

(c) To provide a greater diversity of candidates to participate in the electoral process.

(d) To permit candidates to pursue policy issues instead of being preoccupied with fundraising and allow officeholders more time to carry out their official duties.

(e) To diminish the danger of actual corruption or the public perception of corruption and strengthen public confidence in the governmental and election processes.

(f) To reduce the perception of influence of lobbyist employers upon future Secretaries of State and their administration of the lobbyist disclosure program.

(g) To protect the public’s fiscal interest by providing sufficient resources to make the public financing program a viable option for qualified candidates, while not wasting resources by providing candidates with an unnecessarily large initial grant of public funds.

91021. The people enact this chapter to further accomplish the following purposes:

(a) To foster more equal and meaningful participation in the political process.

(b) To provide candidates who participated in the program with sufficient resources with which to communicate with voters.

(c) To increase the accountability of the Secretary of State to the constituents who elect him or her.

(d) To provide voters with timely information regarding the sources of campaign contributions, expenditures, and political advertising.

Article 2. Applicability to the Political Reform Act of 1974

91023. Unless specifically superseded by this act, the definitions and provisions of the Political Reform Act of 1974 shall govern the interpretation of this chapter.

Article 3. Definitions

91024. “Address” means the mailing address as provided on the voter registration form.

91025. For purposes of this chapter, “candidate” means, unless otherwise stated, a candidate for Secretary of State.

91027. A “coordinated expenditure” means a payment made for the purpose of influencing the outcome of an election for Secretary of State that is made by any of the following methods:

(a) By a person in cooperation, consultation, or concert with, at the request or suggestion of, or pursuant to a particular understanding with a candidate, a candidate’s controlled committee, or an agent acting on behalf of a candidate or a controlled committee.

(b) By a person for the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign material prepared by a candidate, a candidate’s controlled committee, or an agent acting on behalf of a candidate or a controlled committee.

(c) Based on specific information about the candidate’s plans, projects, or needs provided to the person making the payment by the candidate or the candidate’s agent who provides the information with a view toward having the payment made.

(d) By a person if, in the same primary and general election in which the payment is made, the person making the payment is serving or has served as a member, employee, fundraiser, or agent of the candidate's controlled committee in an executive or policymaking position.

(e) By a person if the person making the payment has served in any formal policy or advisory position with the candidate’s campaign or has participated in strategic or policymaking discussions with the candidate’s campaign relating to the candidate’s pursuit of nomination for election, or election, to the office of Secretary of State in the same primary and general election as the primary and general election in which the payment is made.

(f) By a person if the person making the payment retains the professional services of an individual or person who, in a nonministerial capacity, has provided or is providing campaign-related services in the same election to a candidate who is pursuing the same nomination or election as any of the candidates to whom the communication refers.

91028. “Effective expenditures” for a nonparticipating candidate means the amount spent plus any independent electioneering expenditures intended to help elect the candidate minus any expenditure treated as an independent electioneering expenditure intended to defeat the candidate. For a participating candidate, it means the amount of Fair Elections funding the candidate has received plus any independent electioneering expenditures intended to help elect the candidate minus any expenditure treated as an independent electioneering expenditure intended to defeat the candidate.

91029. “Entity” means any person other than an individual.

91031. “Excess expenditure amount” means the amount of funds spent or obligated to be spent by a nonparticipating candidate in excess of the Fair Elections funding amount available to a participating candidate running for the same office.

91033. “Exploratory period” means the period beginning 18 months before the primary election and ending on the last day of the qualifying period. The exploratory period begins before, but extends to the end of, the qualifying period.

91035. “General election campaign period” means the period beginning the day after the primary election and ending on the day of the general election.

91037. “Independent candidate” means a candidate who does not represent a political party that has been granted ballot status for the general election and who has qualified, or is seeking to qualify, to be on the general election ballot.

Article 4. Fair Elections Eligibility

91071. (a) An office-qualified candidate qualifies as a participating candidate for the primary election campaign period if the following requirements are met:

(I) The candidate files a declaration with the commission that the candidate has complied and will comply with all of the requirements of this act, including the requirement that during the exploratory period and the qualifying period the candidate not accept or spend private contributions from any source other than seed money contributions, qualifying contributions, Fair Elections funds, and political party funds as specified in Section 91123.

(2) The candidate meets the following qualifying contribution requirements before the close of the qualifying period:

(A) The office-qualified candidate shall collect at least 7,500 qualifying contributions.

(B) Each qualifying contribution shall be acknowledged by a receipt to the contributor, with a copy submitted by the candidate to the county registrar of voters in the county where the candidate files his or her declaration of candidacy. The receipt shall include the contributor’s signature, printed name, and address, the date, and the name of the candidate on whose behalf the contribution is made. In addition, the receipt shall indicate by the contributor’s signature that the contributor understands that the purpose of the qualifying contribution is to help the candidate qualify for Fair Elections campaign funding, that the contribution is the only qualifying contribution the contributor has provided to a candidate for this office, and that the contribution is made without coercion or reimbursement.

(C) A contribution submitted as a qualifying contribution that does not include a signed and fully completed receipt shall not be counted as a qualifying contribution.

(D) All five-dollar ($5) qualifying contributions, whether in the form of cash, check, or money order made out to the candidate’s campaign account, shall be deposited by the candidate in the candidate’s campaign account.

(E) All qualifying contributions’ signed receipts shall be sent to the county registrar of voters in the county where the candidate files his or her declaration of candidacy and shall be accompanied by a check or other written instrument from the candidate’s campaign account for the total amount of qualifying contribution funds received for deposit in the Fair Elections Fund. This submission shall be accompanied by a signed statement from the candidate indicating that all of the information on the qualifying contribution receipts is complete and accurate to the best of the candidate’s knowledge and that the amount of the enclosed check or other written instrument is equal to the sum of all of the five-dollar ($5) qualifying contributions the candidate has received. County registrars of voters shall forward these checks or other written instruments to the commission.

(b) A candidate qualifies as a participating candidate for the general election campaign period if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) The candidate met all of the applicable requirements and filed a declaration with the commission that the candidate has fulfilled and will fulfill all of the requirements of a participating candidate as stated in this act.

(2) As a participating party candidate during the primary election campaign period, the candidate had the highest number of votes of the candidates contesting the primary election from the candidate’s respective party and, therefore, won the party’s nomination.

91073. (a) A qualified candidate shall collect at least one-half of the number of qualifying contributions as required for an office-qualified candidate for the same office. A qualified candidate may show a greater base of support by collecting double the amount of qualifying contributions as required for an office-qualified candidate to become a performance-qualified candidate. A participating candidate who receives a qualifying contribution or a seed money contribution that is not from the person listed on the receipt required by subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 91071 shall be liable to pay the commission the entire amount of the inaccurately identified contribution, in addition to any penalties.

(c) Contributions for the purposes of retiring a previous campaign debt that are deposited in the “other campaign account” described in subdivision (b) shall not be considered “contributions” to the candidate’s current campaign. Those contributions shall only be raised during the six-month period following the date of the election.

91083. (a) Participating candidates shall use their Fair Elections funds only for direct campaign purposes.

(b) A participating candidate shall not use Fair Elections funds for any of the following:

(b) Personal funds shall not be used to meet the qualifying contribution requirement except for one five-dollar ($5) contribution from the candidate and one five-dollar ($5) contribution from the candidate’s spouse.

91087. (a) The only private contributions a candidate seeking to become eligible for Fair Elections funding shall accept, other than qualifying contributions and limited contributions from the candidate’s political party as specified in Section 91123, are seed money contributions contributed by duly registered voters in the district in which the candidate is running for election prior to the end of the qualifying period.

(b) A seed money contribution shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per donor, and the aggregate amount of seed money contributions accepted by a candidate seeking to become eligible for Fair Elections funding shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(c) Receipts for seed money contributions shall include the contributor’s signature, printed name, address, and ZIP Code. Receipts described in this subdivision shall be made available to the commission upon request.

(d) Seed money shall be spent only during the exploratory and qualifying periods. Seed money shall not be spent during the primary or general election campaign periods, except when they overlap with the candidate’s qualifying period. Any unspent seed money shall be turned over to the commission for deposit in the Fair Elections Fund.

(e) Within 72 hours after the close of the qualifying period, candidates seeking to become eligible for Fair Elections funding shall do both of the following:

(1) Fully disclose all seed money contributions and expenditures to the commission.

(2) Turn over to the commission for deposit in the Fair Elections Fund any seed money the candidate has raised during the exploratory period that exceeds the aggregate seed money limit.

91091. Participating candidates in contested races shall agree to participate in at least one public debate during a contested primary election and two public debates during a contested general election, to be conducted pursuant to regulations promulgated by the commission.

91093. (a) No more than five business days after a candidate applies for Fair Elections benefits, the county registrar of voters in the county where the candidate files his or her declaration of candidacy shall certify that the candidate is or is not eligible. Eligibility may be revoked if the candidate violates the requirements of this act, in which case all Fair Elections funds shall be repaid.

(b) The candidate’s request for certification shall be signed by the candidate and the candidate’s campaign treasurer under penalty of perjury.

(c) The certification determination of the county registrar of voters is final except that it is subject to a prompt judicial review.

(2) Receive, if a performance-qualified candidate, additional Fair Elections funding to match the effective expenditures of any candidates in the election that exceed the effective expenditures of the performance-qualified candidate.

(b) The maximum aggregate amount of funding a participating performance-qualified candidate shall receive to match independent electioneering expenditures and excess expenditures of nonparticipating candidates shall not exceed four times the base funding amount pursuant to Section 91099 for a particular primary or general election campaign period.

91095.5. (a) An expenditure by a candidate in a primary election against a candidate running for that office in another party’s primary shall be treated as an independent electioneering expenditure against that candidate when that candidate’s effective expenditures are less than those of the candidate making the expenditure for the purposes of Section 91095.

(b) The commission shall promulgate regulations allocating the share of expenditures that reference or depict more than one candidate for the purposes of Section 91095.

(c) Expenditures made before the general election period that consist of a contract, promise, or agreement to make an expenditure during the general election period resulting in an extension of credit shall be treated as though made at the beginning of the general election period.

91097. (a) An eligible qualified or performance-qualified candidate running in a primary election shall receive the candidate’s Fair Elections funding for the primary election campaign period on the date on which the county registrar of voters certifies the candidate as a participating candidate or at the beginning of the primary election period, whichever is later.

(2) The amount of Fair Elections funding for an eligible qualified candidate in a contested general election is 25 percent of the base amount a performance-qualified candidate would receive.

Article 6. Disclosure Requirements

91107. (a) If a nonparticipating candidate’s total expenditures or promises to make campaign expenditures exceed the amount of Fair Elections funding allocated to the candidate’s Fair Elections opponent or opponents, the candidate shall declare every excess expenditure amount which, in the aggregate, is more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) to the commission online or electronically within 24 hours of the time the expenditure or promise is made, whichever occurs first.

(b) The commission may make its own determination as to whether excess expenditures have been made by nonparticipating candidates.

(c) Upon receiving an excess expenditure declaration or determining that an excess expenditure has been made, the commission shall immediately release additional Fair Elections funding to the opposing performance-qualified candidates pursuant to Section 91095.

91111. (a) In addition to any other report required by this chapter, a committee, including a political party committee, that is required to file reports pursuant to Section 84605 and that makes independent electioneering expenditures of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more during a calendar year in connection with a candidate for Secretary of State, shall file online or electronically a report with the Secretary of State disclosing the making of the independent electioneering expenditure. This report shall disclose the same information required by subdivision (b) of Section 84204 and shall be filed within 24 hours of the time the independent electioneering expenditure is made.

(b) The report to the Secretary of State shall include a signed statement under penalty of perjury by the person or persons making the independent electioneering expenditure identifying the candidate or candidates whom the independent electioneering expenditure is intended to help elect or defeat and affirming that the expenditure is independent and whether it is coordinated with a candidate or a political party.

(c) Any individual or organization that fails to file the required report to the Secretary of State or provides materially false information in a report filed pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) may be fined up to three times the amount of the independent electioneering expenditure, in addition to any other remedies provided by this act.

(d) The Secretary of State shall provide information received pursuant to subdivision (a) to the commission simultaneously upon receipt. Upon receiving a report that an independent electioneering expenditure has been made or obligated to be made, the commission shall immediately release additional Fair Elections funding pursuant to Section 91095.

91113. All broadcast and print advertisements placed by candidates or their committees shall include a clear written or spoken statement indicating that the candidate has approved of the contents of the advertisement.

Article 7. Legal Defense, Officeholder, and Inaugural Funds

(a) Notwithstanding Section 85316, a Secretary of State or candidate for the office of Secretary of State may establish a separate account to defray attorney’s fees and other related legal costs incurred for the candidate’s or elected state officer’s legal defense if the candidate or elected state officer is subject to one or more civil or criminal proceedings or administrative proceedings arising directly out of the conduct of an election campaign, the electoral process, or the performance of the elected state officer’s governmental activities and duties. These funds may be used only to defray those attorney’s fees and other related legal costs.

(b) A Secretary of State may establish a separate account for expenses associated with holding office that are reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose as specified in this subdivision and in regulations of the commission. The total amount of funds that may be deposited in a calendar year into an account established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(d) The maximum amount of contributions a candidate or elected state officer whose office is covered by these provisions may receive from a contributor in a calendar year for all of the accounts described in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) combined is five hundred dollars ($500). All contributions, whether cash or in kind, shall be reported in a manner prescribed by the commission. Contributions to such funds shall not be considered campaign contributions.

(e) Once the legal dispute is resolved, the candidate shall dispose of any funds remaining after all expenses associated with the dispute are discharged or after the elected state officer whose office is covered by these provisions leaves office, for one or more of the purposes set forth in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (b) of Section 89519.

Article 8. Restrictions on Candidates

91121. A nonparticipating candidate may accept an otherwise lawful contribution after the date of the election only to the extent that the contribution does not exceed net debts outstanding from the election.

91123. Participating candidates may accept monetary or in-kind contributions from political parties provided that the aggregate amount of such contributions from all political party committees combined does not exceed the equivalent of 5 percent of the original Fair Elections financing allotment for that office for that election. Such expenditures shall not count against the moneys spent by Fair Elections candidates.

Article 9. Ballot Pamphlet Statements

91127. The Secretary of State shall designate in the state ballot pamphlet and on any Internet Web site listing of candidates maintained by any government agency including, but not limited, to the Secretary of State those candidates who have voluntarily agreed to be participating candidates.

91131. (a) A candidate for Secretary of State who is a participating candidate may place a statement in the state ballot pamphlet that does not exceed 250 words. The statement shall not make any reference to any opponent of the candidate. The candidate may also provide a list of up to 10 endorsers for placement in the state ballot pamphlet or sample ballot, as appropriate. This statement and list of endorsers shall be submitted in accordance with timeframes and procedures set forth by the Secretary of State for the preparation of the state ballot pamphlets and by county elections officials for the preparation of sample ballots.

(b) A nonparticipating candidate for Secretary of State may pay to place a statement in the state ballot pamphlet that does not exceed 250 words. A nonparticipating candidate may also pay to place a list of up to 10 endorsers in the state ballot pamphlet or sample ballot, as appropriate. The statement shall not make any reference to any opponent of the candidate. This statement and list of endorsers shall be submitted in accordance with timeframes and procedures set forth by the Secretary of State for the preparation of the state ballot pamphlets and by county elections officials for the preparation of sample ballots. The nonparticipating candidate shall be charged the pro rata cost of printing, handling, translating, and mailing any ballot pamphlet statement and list of endorsers provided pursuant to this subdivision.

Article 10. Appropriations for the Fair Elections Fund

91133. (a) A special, dedicated, nonlapsing Fair Elections Fund is created in the State Treasury.
Commencing January 1, 2011, the funds collected pursuant to Section 20600 of the Elections Code shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available from the Fair Elections Fund to the commission for expenditure for the purpose of providing public financing for the election campaigns of certified participating candidates during primary and general campaign periods.

(b) Funding for the administrative and enforcement costs of the commission related to this act shall be from the Fair Elections Fund and shall be, for each four-year election cycle, no more than 10 percent of the total amount deposited in the Fair Elections Fund during the four-year election cycle.

91135. Other sources of revenue to be deposited in the Fair Elections Fund shall include all of the following:

(a) The qualifying contributions required of candidates seeking to become certified as participating candidates and candidates’ excess qualifying contributions.

(b) The excess seed money contributions of candidates seeking to become certified as participating candidates.

(c) Unspent funds distributed to any participating candidate who does not remain a candidate until the primary or general election for which they were distributed, or funds that remain unspent by a participating candidate following the date of the primary or general election for which they were distributed.

(d) Voluntary donations made directly to the Fair Elections Fund.

(e) Other funds appropriated by the Legislature.

(f) Any interest generated by the Fair Elections Fund.

(g) Any other sources of revenue from the General Fund or from other sources as determined by the Legislature.

Article 11. Administration

91137. (a) Upon a determination that a candidate has met all the requirements for becoming a participating candidate as provided for in this act, the commission shall issue to the candidate a card, known as the “Fair Elections Debit Card,” and a “line of debit” entitling the candidates and members of the candidate’s staff to draw Fair Elections funds from a commission account to pay for all campaign costs and expenses up to the amount of Fair Elections funding the candidate has received.

(b) Neither a participating candidate nor any other person on behalf of a participating candidate shall pay campaign costs by cash, check, money order, loan, or by any other financial means other than the Fair Elections Debit Card.

(c) Cash amounts of one hundred dollars ($100) or less per day may be drawn on the Fair Elections Debit Card and used to pay expenses of no more than twenty-five dollars ($25) each. Records of all such expenditures shall be maintained and, upon request, made available to the commission.

91139. If the commission determines that there are insufficient funds in the program to fund adequately all candidates eligible for Fair Elections funds, the commission shall reduce the grants proportionately to all eligible candidates. If the commission notifies a candidate that the Fair Elections funds will be reduced and the candidate has not received any Fair Elections funds, the candidate may decide to be a nonparticipating candidate. If a candidate has already received Fair Elections funds or wishes to start receiving such funds, a candidate who wishes to collect contributions may do so in amounts up to the contribution limits provided for nonparticipating candidates but shall not collect more than the total of Fair Elections funds that the candidate was entitled to receive had there been sufficient funds in the program less the amount of Fair Elections funds that will be or have been provided. If, at a later point, the commission determines that adequate funds have become available, candidates, who have not raised private funds, shall receive the funds owed to them.

91140. The commission shall adjust the seed money limitations in subdivision (a) of Section 91085 and in subdivision (b) of Section 91087 and the Fair Elections Fund funding amounts in Section 91099 in January after the election of the Secretary of State to reflect any increase or decrease in the Consumer Price Index and the increase or decrease in the number of registered voters in California. The adjustments made pursuant to this section shall be rounded to the nearest ten dollars ($10) for the seed money limitations and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the Fair Elections funding amounts.

Article 12. Enforcement

91141. (a) If a participating candidate spends or obligates to spend more than the Fair Elections funding the candidate is given, and if it is determined by the commission, subject to court review, not to be an amount that had or could have been expected to have a significant impact on the outcome of the election, then the candidate shall repay to the Fair Elections Fund an amount equal to the excess.

(b) If a participating candidate spends or obligates to spend more than the Fair Elections funding the candidate is given, and if that excess amount is determined by the commission, subject to court review, to be an amount that had or could have been expected to have a significant impact on the outcome of the election, then the candidate shall repay to the Fair Elections Fund an amount up to 10 times the value of the excess.

91143. It is unlawful for candidates to knowingly accept more benefits than those to which they are entitled, spend more than the amount of Fair Elections funding they have received, or misuse such benefits or Fair Elections funding.

91145. Any person who knowingly or willfully violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who knowingly or willfully causes any other person to violate any provision of this chapter, or who aids and abets any other person in the violation of any provision of this chapter shall be liable under this section. 91147. Prosecution for a violation of any provision of this chapter shall be commenced within four years after the date on which the violation occurred. 91149. No person convicted of a misdemeanor under this chapter shall act as a lobbyist or state contractor, or run for elective state office, for a period of five years following the date of conviction unless the court at the time of sentencing specifically determines that this provision shall not be applicable. 91157. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2019, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2019, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Article 8.6 (commencing with Section 18798) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 8.6. Voters Fair Elections Fund

18798. (a) An individual may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the Voters Fair Elections Fund, pursuant to Section 18798.1.

(b) Contributions shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made individually by each signatory on a joint return.

(c) A designation under subdivision (a) shall be made for any taxable year on the individual return for that taxable year and, once made, shall be irrevocable. In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the individual's account, do not exceed the individual's liability, the return shall be treated as if no designation were made.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled “Voters Fair Elections Fund” to allow for the designation permitted under subdivision (a). The forms shall also include instructions that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution will be used to provide public funding for the campaigns of qualified candidates for Secretary of State who agree to take no private moneys for their campaigns.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a voluntary contribution designation for the Voters Fair Elections Fund shall not be added to the tax return until another voluntary contribution is removed.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 of Part 10 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18798.1. There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Voters Fair Elections Fund to receive contributions made pursuant to Section 18798. The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of both the amount of moneys paid by taxpayers in excess of their tax liability and the amount of refund moneys which taxpayers have designated pursuant to Section 18798 to be transferred to the Voters Fair Elections Fund. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the Voters Fair Elections Fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the amounts designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18798 for payment into that fund.

18798.2. All moneys transferred to the Voters Fair Elections Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(b) To the Fair Elections Fund established pursuant to Section 91133 of the Government Code.

18798.3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), this article shall remain in effect only until January 1 of the fifth taxable year following the first appearance of the Voters Fair Elections Fund on the personal income tax return, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before the applicable date deletes or extends that date.

(b) (1) By September 1 of the second calendar year, and by September 1 of each subsequent calendar year that the Voters Fair Elections Fund appears on a tax return, the Franchise Tax Board shall do all of the following:

(A) Determine the minimum contribution amount required to be received during the next calendar year for the fund to appear on the tax return for the taxable year that includes that next calendar year.

(B) Provide written notification to the Fair Political Practices Commission of the amount determined in subparagraph (A).

(C) Determine whether the amount of contributions estimated to be received during the calendar year will equal or exceed the minimum contribution amount determined by the Franchise Tax Board for the calendar year pursuant to subparagraph (A). The Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the amount of contributions to be received by using the actual amounts received and an estimate of the contributions that will be received by the end of that calendar year.

(2) If the Franchise Tax Board determines that the amount of contributions estimated to be received during a calendar year will not at least equal the minimum contribution amount for the calendar year, this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1 of that calendar year.

(3) For purposes of this section, the minimum contribution amount for a calendar year means two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for the second calendar year after the first appearance of the Voters Fair Elections Fund on the personal income tax return or the adjusted minimum contribution amount adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with the third calendar year after the first appearance of the Voters Fair Elections Fund on the personal income tax return, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1, the minimum contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 6. PROPOSITION 16

This initiative measure is submitted to the people in accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section 8 of the California Constitution.

This initiative measure expressly amends the California Constitution by adding a section thereto; therefore, new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

Section 1. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS

The People do find and declare:

(a) This initiative shall be known as “The Taxpayers Right to Vote Act.”

(b) California law requires two-thirds voter approval for tax increases for specific purposes.

(c) The politicians in local governments should be held to the same standard before using public funds, borrowing, issuing bonds guaranteed by ratepayers or taxpayers, or obtaining other debt or financing to start or expand electric delivery service, or to implement a plan to become an aggregate electricity provider.

(d) Local governments often start or expand electric delivery service, or implement a plan to become an aggregate electricity provider, without approval by a vote of the people.

(e) Frequently the start-up, expansion, or implementation plan requires either construction or acquisition of facilities or other services necessary to deliver the electric service, to be paid for with public funds, borrowing, bonds guaranteed by ratepayers or taxpayers, or other debt or financing.

(f) The source of the public funds, borrowing, debt, and bond financing is generally the electricity rates charged to ratepayers as well as surcharges or taxes imposed on taxpayers.

(g) Such use of public funds and many forms of borrowing, debt or financing do not presently require approval by a vote of the people, and where a vote is required, only a majority vote may be required.

Section 2. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

(a) The purpose of this initiative is to guarantee to ratepayers and taxpayers the right to vote any time a local government seeks to use public funds, public debt, bonds or liability, or taxes or other financing to start or expand electric delivery service to a new territory or new customers, or to implement a plan to become an aggregate electricity provider.

(b) If the start-up or expansion requires the construction or acquisition of facilities or services that will be paid for with public funds, or financed through bonds to be paid for or guaranteed by ratepayers or taxpayers, or to be paid for by other forms of public expenditure, borrowing, liability or debt, then two-thirds of the voters in the territory being served and two-thirds of the voters in the territory to be served, voting at an election, must approve the expenditure, borrowing, liability or debt. Also, if the implementation of a plan to become an aggregate electricity provider requires the use of public funds, or financing through bonds guaranteed by ratepayers or taxpayers, or other forms of public expenditure, borrowing, liability or debt, then two-thirds of the voters in the jurisdiction, voting at an election, must approve the expenditure, borrowing, liability or debt.

Section 3. Section 9.5 is added to Article XI of the California Constitution to read:

SEC. 9.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (h), no local government shall, at any time, incur any bonded or other indebtedness or liability in any manner or use any public funds for the construction or acquisition of facilities, works, goods, commodities, products or services to establish or expand electric delivery service, or to implement a plan to become an aggregate electricity provider without the approval by a vote of the people.
provider, without the assent of two-thirds of the voters within the jurisdiction of the local government and two-thirds of the voters within the territory to be served, if any, voting at an election to be held for the purpose of approving the use of any public funds, or incurring any liability, or incurring any bonded or other borrowing or indebtedness.

(b) “Local government” means a municipality or municipal corporation, a municipal utility district, a public utility district, an irrigation district, a city, including a charter city, a county, a city and county, a district, a special district, an agency, or a joint powers authority that includes one or more of these entities.

(c) “Electric delivery service” means (1) transmission of electric power directly to retail end-use customers, (2) distribution of electric power to customers for resale or directly to retail end-use customers, or (3) sale of electric power to retail end-use customers.

(d) “Expand electric delivery service” does not include (1) electric delivery service within the existing jurisdictional boundaries of a local government that is the sole electric delivery service provider within those boundaries, or (2) continuing to provide electric delivery service to customers already receiving electric delivery service from the local government prior to the enactment of this section.

(e) “A plan to become an aggregate electricity provider” means a plan by a local government to provide community choice aggregation services or to replace the authorized local public utility in whole or in part for electric delivery service to any retail electricity customers within its jurisdiction.

(f) “Public funds” means, without limitation, any taxes, funds, cash, income, equity, assets, proceeds of bonds or other financing or borrowing, or rates paid by ratepayers. “Public funds” do not include federal funds.

(g) “Bonded or other indebtedness or liability” means, without limitation, any borrowing, bond, note, guarantee or other indebtedness, liability or obligation, direct or indirect, of any kind, contingent or otherwise, or use of any indebtedness, liability or obligation for reimbursement of any moneys expended from taxes, cash, income, equity, assets, contributions by ratepayers, the treasury of the local government, or other sources.

(h) This section shall not apply to any bonded or other indebtedness or liability or use of public funds that (1) has been approved by the voters within the jurisdiction of the local government and within the territory to be served, if any, prior to the enactment of this section; or (2) is solely for the purpose of purchasing, providing or supplying renewable electricity from biomass, solar thermal, photovoltaic, wind, geothermal, fuel cells using renewable fuels, small hydroelectric generation of 30 megawatts or less, digester gas, municipal solid waste conversion, landfill gas, ocean wave, ocean thermal, or tidal current, or providing electric delivery service for the local government’s own end use and not for electric delivery service to others.

Section 4. CONFLICTING MEASURES

A. This initiative is intended to be comprehensive. It is the intent of the people that in the event that this initiative and another initiative relating to the same subject appear on the same statewide election ballot, the provisions of the other initiative or initiatives are deemed to be in conflict with this initiative. In the event this initiative shall receive the greater number of affirmative votes, the provisions of this initiative shall prevail in their entirety, and all provisions of the other initiative or initiatives shall be null and void.

B. If this initiative is approved by voters but superseded by law or by any other conflicting ballot initiative approved by the voters at the same election, and the conflicting law or ballot initiative is later held invalid, this initiative shall be self-executing and given full force of law.

Section 5. SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this initiative are severable. If any provision of this initiative or its application is held to be invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

PROPOSITION 17

This initiative measure is submitted to the people in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 of Article II of the California Constitution.

This initiative measure amends a section of, and adds a section to, the Insurance Code; therefore, existing provisions proposed to be deleted are printed in strikeout type and new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

SECTION 1. Title

This measure shall be known as the Continuous Coverage Auto Insurance Discount Act.

SEC. 2. The people of the State of California find and declare that:

(a) Under California law, the Department of Insurance regulates insurance rates and determines what discounts auto insurance companies can give drivers.

(b) However, an inconsistency in California’s insurance laws allows insurers to provide a discount for drivers who continue with the same insurer, but prohibits them from offering this discount to new customers. Drivers who maintain insurance coverage are not able to keep a continuous coverage discount if they change insurers.

(c) This measure corrects that inconsistency and ensures that all drivers who continually maintain their automobile insurance are eligible for this discount even if they change their insurance company.

(d) This measure does not change the provisions in current law that require insurers to base their rates primarily on driving safety record, miles driven annually, and driving experience. This measure simply allows all companies to offer the expanded continuous coverage discount to new applicants who have maintained their auto insurance.

(e) Extending the continuous coverage discount to people who change insurance companies will provide drivers with more options and choices, increase competition, and drive down rates for all responsibly insured drivers.

(f) The vast majority of states allow insurers to offer a discount to ALL drivers who maintain ongoing auto insurance. This measure will simply bring California into line with other states like Texas, New York, Oregon, Washington, and Florida.

SEC. 3. Purpose

The purpose of this measure is to provide an additional discount for drivers who are continuously insured for automobile liability coverage.

SEC. 4. Section 1861.024 is added to the Insurance Code to read:

1861.024. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 1861.02, and in addition to discounts permitted or required by law or regulation, an insurer may offer applicants or insureds an additional discount for a policy to which subdivision (a) of Section 1861.02 applies, applicable to each coverage provided by the policy, based on the length of time the applicant or insured has been continuously insured for bodily injury liability coverage, with one or more insurers, affiliated or not. The insurer may consider the years of continuous coverage preceding the policy effective or renewal date. This discount is called a continuity discount. Children residing with a parent may be provided the same discount based on their parents' eligibility for a continuity discount.

(b) The applicant or insured may demonstrate continuity of coverage, for a policy to which subdivision (a) of Section 1861.02 applies, by providing proof of coverage under the low-cost automobile insurance program pursuant to Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 11629.7) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2, or by proof of coverage under the assigned risk plans pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 11620) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2, or by proof of coverage from the prior insurer or insurers or other objective evidence. Proof of coverage shall be copies of policies, billings, or other documents evidencing coverage, issued by the prior insurer or insurers or other objective evidence. Continuity of coverage shall be deemed to exist even if there is a lapse of coverage due to an applicant's or insured's absence from the United States while in military service, or if an applicant's or insured's coverage has lapsed for up to 90 days in the last five years for any reason other than nonpayment of premium. This subdivision does not limit an insurer's ability to offer additional grace periods for lapses.

SEC. 5. Section 1861.02 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

(a) Rates and premiums for an automobile insurance policy, as described in subdivision (a) of Section 660, shall be determined by application of the following factors in decreasing order of importance:

(1) The insured's driving safety record.
(2) The number of miles he or she drives annually.
(3) The number of years of driving experience the insured has had.

(4) Those other factors that the commissioner may adopt by regulation and that have a substantial relationship to the risk of loss. The regulations shall set forth the respective weight to be given each factor in determining automobile rates and premiums. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the use of any criterion without approval shall constitute unfair discrimination.

(b) (i) Every person who meets the criteria of Section 1861.025 shall be qualified to purchase a Good Driver Discount policy from the insurer of his or her choice. An insurer shall not refuse to offer and sell a Good Driver Discount policy to any person who meets the standards of this subdivision.

(ii) The rate charged for a Good Driver Discount policy shall comply with subdivision (a) and shall be at least 20% below the rate the insured would otherwise have been charged for the same coverage. Rates for Good Driver Discount policies shall be approved pursuant to this article.

SEC. 6. Section 1861.025 shall be qualified to purchase a Good Driver Discount policy to any person who meets the standards of this subdivision.

SEC. 7. Section 1861.024 shall be qualified to purchase a Good Driver Discount policy to any person who meets the standards of this subdivision.
member purchases insurance offered by the membership organization. None of those membership dues or any portion thereof shall be transferred by the membership organization to the insurer, or any affiliate of the insurer, attorney-in-fact, subsidiary, or holding company thereof, provided that this provision shall not prevent any bona fide transaction between the membership organization and those entities.

(iii) Membership provides bona fide services or benefits in addition to the right to apply for insurance. Those services shall be reasonably available to all members within each class of membership.

Any insurer that violates clause (i), (ii), or (iii) shall be subject to the penalties set forth in Section 1861.14.

c) The absence of prior automobile insurance coverage, in and of itself, shall not be a criterion for determining eligibility for a Good Driver Discount policy, or generally for automobile rates, premiums, or insurability. However, notwithstanding subdivision (a), an insurer may use persistency of automobile insurance coverage with the insurer, an affiliate, or another insurer as an optional rating factor. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it furthers the purpose of Proposition 103 to encourage competition among carriers so that coverage overall will be priced competitively. The Legislature further finds and declares that competition is furthered when insureds are able to claim a discount for regular purchases of insurance from any carrier offering this discount irrespective of whether or not the insured has previously purchased from a given carrier offering the discount. Persistency of coverage may be demonstrated by coverage under the lowest automobile insurance program pursuant to Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 11629.7) and Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 11629.9) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2, or by coverage under the assigned risk plans pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 11620) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2. Persistency shall be deemed to exist even if there is a lapse of coverage of up to two years due to an insured’s absence from the state while in military service, and up to 90 days in the last five years for any other reason.

d) An insurer may refuse to sell a Good Driver Discount policy insuring a motorcycle unless all named insureds have been licensed to drive a motorcycle for the previous three years.

e) This section shall become operative on November 8, 1989. The commissioner shall adopt regulations implementing this section and insurers may submit applications pursuant to this article which comply with those regulations prior to that date, provided that no such application shall be approved prior to that date.

SEC. 6. Conflicting Ballot Measures

In the event that this measure and another measure or measures relating to continuity of coverage shall appear on the same statewide election ballot, the provisions of the other measures shall be deemed to be in conflict with this measure. In the event that this measure shall receive a greater number of votes, the provisions of this measure shall prevail in their entirety, and the provisions of the other measure or measures shall be null and void.

SEC. 7. Amendment

The provisions of this act shall not be amended by the Legislature except to further its purposes by a statute passed in each house by roll call vote entered in the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring.

SEC. 8. Severability

It is the intent of the people that the provisions of this act are severable and that if any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
